General Information

Overview

Throughout the unit you will develop the requisite knowledge and skills to assist with your evolution to beginner practitioner and a Registered Paramedic. This unit will explore the requirements for registration and continuing professional development as a paramedic in Australia. You will also further develop your professional and therapeutic communication skills, with a focus on receiving and delivering constructive feedback, in preparation for a graduate internship and future mentoring and leadership opportunities. Additionally, you will investigate and propose positive professional habits to strengthen individual resilience while promoting good physical and psychological health, integral to an effective career in paramedicine.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student Feedback

Feedback

Some students expressed that they felt uncertain about their progress or unsure if they are meeting expectations in a largely student-led unit.

Recommendation

Introduce regular formative feedback opportunities, such as short reflection tasks or peer reviews, to help students gauge their progress and increase engagement with the learning process
