General Information

Overview

This unit will introduce you to advanced clinical assessment, combining the skills of clinical history taking with those for physical examination, whilst incorporating knowledge of cultural and linguistically diverse populations. You will synthesise clinical information while integrating underpinning knowledge of common pathologies and pathophysiology in the critical care context. You will be able to formulate an appropriate clinical management plan to treat the critically ill or injured and employ reflective practice principles to effectively revise ongoing management plans as required. You will also critically reflect upon the leadership skills required at a critical care level.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Informal Feedback

Students who participated in the one-on-one Zoom sessions found them extremely beneficial for developing the critical thinking skills required.

Recommendation

Continue to encourage students to participate in one on one online sessions

Feedback from Formal feedback

Narrative style assessment was consider a poor assessment task

Recommendation

Nil change is required as per the isolated feedback and narrative writing is a recommended style to express critical thinking and reflective practice.
