PODI13008 Clinical Biomechanics of the Lower Limb

Term 1 - 2027

Profile information current as at 07/09/2026 09:35 pm

All details in this unit profile for PODI13008 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will be presented with common structural and functional variations of the lower limb as seen in podiatry practice. You will learn the aetiology, clinical diagnosis and management of common orthopaedic lower limb conditions. You will refine and develop your knowledge and skills in clinical gait analysis and biomechanical assessment which will be used to assess and diagnose biomechanical conditions of the lower limb. This will incorporate various motion analysis devices and medical equipment in the assessment and treatment of biomechanical conditions in a podiatric context.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Informal student feedback and unit coordinator reflection.

Feedback

The implementation of the 'Podiatry Biomechanical Assessment Manual' was useful for guiding student's revision of practical skills.

Recommendation

It is recommended that use of the 'Podiatry Biomechanical Assessment Manual' in the PODI13007 teaching materials is continued in subsequent years of delivery.

Feedback from Unit coordinator reflection.

Feedback

Students may benefit from additional learning experiences tailored toward preparation for the 'Written Assessment'.

Recommendation

It is recommended that additional learning activities tailored toward preparing students for the 'Written Assessment' be implemented in subsequent years of delivery.
