PODI13015 Advanced Pharmacology for Podiatry Practice

Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 29/04/2024 05:48 pm

All details in this unit profile for PODI13015 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

The unit will be divided into two main components: pharmacotherapeutics and anaesthesia, specific to podiatry practice. In pharmacotherapeutics, you will gain an understanding of Schedule 2, 3, 4, and 8 medicines administered in common diseases seen in podiatry practice and learn further about their role in the management of disease. In anaesthesia, you will gain advanced knowledge of anaesthetics pertinent to podiatry practice. Topics covered will include pre-surgical history and physical assessment, informed consent, charting, maximum safe dose, and injection instrumentation. You will also begin to practice injection techniques in a simulated setting.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator/Lecturer

Feedback

Students appreciated clinical case study activities during lecture and tutorials.

Recommendation

It is recommended to continue incorporating clinical case studies in tutorials to further increase student engagement and promote interactive discussions.

Feedback from Students enrolled in the unit.

Feedback

Students expressed the advantages of a dedicated face-to-face OSCE revision session.

Recommendation

It is recommended to conduct a scheduled practical revision session face-to-face before OSCE assessments. This approach aims to enhance engagement and provide timely feedback within a group setting.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator

Feedback

Individualised Assessment feedback turn-around time can be improved.

Recommendation

It is recommended that assessments for this unit be appropriately scheduled, ensuring sufficient time for feedback within the two-week policy for providing grade feedback.
