Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses
Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from QR Code Student Feedback

Students valued the interactive learning approach, noting that activities, practical tasks, worked examples, and using MS Project improved their engagement and understanding.

Recommendation
The teaching team appreciates the positive feedback on class activities, practical tasks, worked examples, and using MS Project. We will keep using these hands-on approaches in future courses to support student engagement and skill development

Students appreciated the group work, interactive teaching, and engaging lectures, noting these supported collaboration and deepened understanding of the material.

Recommendation
The teaching team values the feedback on group work, interactive teaching, and lectures, and will continue these to support engagement and learning.

Feedback
Students suggested improving the unit by adding more exercises, giving extra time for quizzes, and better aligning the timetable with other units.

Recommendation
The teaching team acknowledges the feedback on exercises, quiz timing, and timetables. We will explore adding more practice, adjusting quiz schedules, and coordinating sessions with other units.
