General Information

Overview

This unit aims to equip you with the necessary knowledge, skills, and abilities to manage strategic initiatives within an organization effectively. This unit will introduce you to the concepts, principles, life cycles, and performance domains of portfolio and program management. This unit will specifically address how organisations apply management techniques to initiate, select, prioritise, and execute projects and programs within a portfolio contributing effectively to the organisational success through strategic alignment, resource optimisation, risk management, stakeholder engagement, benefits realisation, monitoring, and control. This unit will also introduce you to systems thinking concepts, principles, and tools that help solve complex problems within portfolios and programs.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from UC

Feedback
The applied development of the assessment significantly enhanced students' realisation of the learning outcomes. However, the assessment requires thorough tutor follow-up to ensure students understand the requirements.

Recommendation
Provide tutors with a standardised briefing or induction on the revised assessments to support consistent follow-up and ensure students understand assessment requirements across all teaching locations. Additionally, interim formative assessments are required to track students' progress and ensure they understand the material.

Feedback
Sudden turnover among casual teaching staff in Brisbane during 2025 T1 negatively affected teaching continuity, contributing to a decline in student evaluation scores and grade consistency for that term.

Recommendation
Intensive follow-up and effective communication with teaching staff shall be maintained to identify and foresee any potential issues.

Feedback from Students' written comments in SUTE

Feedback
Students reported delays in responding to questions and emails, as well as mid-term changes to the class timetable, which affected the consistency and organisation of the unit's delivery.

Recommendation
The timetable change was necessary due to the sudden turnover of teaching staff during the term. To mitigate such disruptions in the future, we will finalise timetable changes only after consulting the administration team and investigating potential clashes beforehand. Communication expectations, including response timeframes, will also be set clearly at the start of the term, supported by the casual-staffing induction and continuity plan outlined in Section 3.
