Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Formative comment from student evaluation Term 1 2025

Feedback

Student feedback, 'I found this course to be interesting and relevant seeing several properties close to mine are either on the market or recently sold and having had a real estate background it was interesting to see how real estate thinking differed from the thinking, theory and practice of Valuation. My Lecturer was approachable, helpful and provided workbooks and resources that were able to be read and viewed without feeling overwhelmed. I enjoyed learning about how property has achieved value over the ages and think a career in valuation would be very interesting.'

Recommendation

Continue the current, case study rich, teaching approach.

Feedback from Formative comment from student evaluation Term 1 2025

Feedback

Student feedback, 'as someone currently working in an administration role in a valuation firm, I found this unit extremely beneficial and relevant to my studies.'

Recommendation

Retain the focus on valuation with clear connection to the current markets.

Feedback from Student evaluation results

Feedback

One in four students did not find that the unit requirements were clear.

Recommendation

Weekly online classes are to retain a focus on the property markets and allocate appropriate time to help students with the assessment tasks.
