Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit evaluation data, direct student feedback, self reflection, broader feedback.

Feedback

Not all students recognise informal (formative) feedback given during class or via email as feedback on their performance in this unit.

Recommendation

It is recommended that feedback should be emphasised and clearly labelled to help students better understand and benefit from it.

Feedback from Unit evaluation data, direct student feedback, self reflection, broader feedback.

Feedback

The standard of completion for preclinical requirements is inconsistent.

Recommendation

It is recommended that clearer guidelines on the standards expected for preclinical requirements should be provided to ensure students understand what is required for successful completion.
