General Information

Overview

In this unit you will build upon previous learning and skills related to research methods, by planning and conducting a supervised group research project. You will be required to collaborate with your assigned research group to deliver key outcomes related to your group research project. You will learn how to effectively and professionally communicate your research findings using the structure of an academic journal manuscript, and you will collaborate to design and deliver a group oral presentation. You will learn essential research skills that will be useful in your development as an autonomous evidence-based practitioner.
