General Information

Overview

This unit will introduce you to educational psychology, the area of behavioural science concerned with the application of psychological principles related to education and learning. Educational psychology is concerned with the entire lifespan. However, this unit focuses specifically on children and adolescents within key educational and learning contexts, such as schools and families. This unit presents an overarching framework within which psychological theories, practices, and research are applied to contemporary educational psychology practices. This incorporates a collaborative approach to enhance learning and development, supporting difference and diversity, and fostering the social and emotional wellbeing of young people.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Email

Feedback

Students found the quality and quantity of feedback on assessment pieces to be beneficial to their learning.

Recommendation

Continue to ensure a high level of assessment feedback is provided to students.

Feedback from Moodle

Feedback

Students and staff found that the American content of the set textbook was at times difficult to relate to the Australian Educational Psychology context.

Recommendation

Update set textbook to resources relevant to the Australian context.

Feedback

Student feedback has indicated a high level of satisfaction with the lecture delivery of this unit during Term 1 2018. This was achieved by providing a combination of live "Zoom" classes and prerecorded lectures across the term.

Recommendation

Recommend that this approach is continued for future terms to encourage active student participation and engagement.

Feedback from Staff and student feedback

Feedback

The time and effort required for students to locate an appropriate teacher (Assessment 2), conduct and transcribe the teacher interviews (Assessment 3) was excessive considering the weighting assigned to this section of the task.

Recommendation

Recommend that Assessments 2 and 3 tasks and marking criteria be revised and rewritten to allow students to demonstrate the intended learning outcomes of this unit.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Apply knowledge of psychological theories, research and practices to educational psychology topics, issues and case studies

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
