General Information

Overview

This capstone unit provides you with the opportunity to reflect upon what you have learned from your undergraduate psychology degree, and to apply your discipline-specific knowledge within a professional context. There will be a focus on the transition into the workforce or further study, including the opportunity to review and finalise your professional ePortfolio, and to reflect on your values and current competencies as a future professional in the field of psychology. You will work in a small team to complete an applied major group project to address a real-world problem faced by an external organisation. Working as scientist-practitioners, your project (such as a research proposal, grant application, literature review, intervention, or evaluation), will be based on contemporary research evidence and consideration of cultural and ethical issues, and will highlight your discipline-specific and professional knowledge and skills.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback, unit coordinator reflection, and feedback from CQUniversity Careers team.

Feedback

Students continued to experience problems with using the Portfolium platform for their ePortfolio assessment.

Replace Portfolium with LinkedIn. This will require slight changes to assessment criteria, as well as new resources for how to use LinkedIn. The CQUniversity Careers team have resources for students already developed that can be incorporated into the unit.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator reflection.

Feedback

Some groups did not adequately engage with industry partners, despite opportunities.

Recommendation

The unit coordinator will take a more active role in facilitating meetings between students and partner organisations.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator reflection.

A small number of students did not fully engage with their group for the capstone project.

Recommendation

Continue regular group check-ins and monitoring of groups. Provide students with resources for group work facilitation. Consider increasing the marks allocated to group participation.

Feedback from End of term student feedback

Feedback

Students appreciated receiving feedback on their group project before the final presentation.

Recommendation

Continue to provide groups the opportunity to practice their pitch with the unit coordinator prior to the final industry pitch.
