General Information

Overview

The ability to communicate effectively in a variety of formats with diverse individuals and groups is an essential skill for professionals such as psychologists which involve working with people. This unit will provide you with practical skills for effective communication, including interviewing and active listening skills. You will learn how different modes of communicating can be used for different audiences (professional, academic, peers, the general population, specific communities). You will reflect on your ongoing development of communication skills and how these apply to future work or study.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE data

Feedback

There was confusion about what was required in the assessments.

Recommendation

Discuss assessment requirements in further detail in tutorials and review assessment brief to ensure it clearly explains the expectations in conjunction with the rubric. Include videos explaining the requirements of each assessment piece.

Feedback

Lectures were not perceived as being useful or linked to assessment.

Recommendation

Link the lecture content to real-world examples in tutorials and relate this to assessment pieces where possible.

Feedback

Feedback was not perceived as useful.

Recommendation

Provide more specific individual feedback on assessments as well as general feedback on common errors to allow for the provision of more feedback overall.
