PSYC20039 Inter-disciplinary and Cross-cultural Approaches to Wellbeing

Term 2 - 2024

Profile information current as at 29/04/2024 11:56 am

All details in this unit profile for PSYC20039 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

The concept of wellbeing is central to Positive Psychology and it has been explored across many disciplines, cultures and spiritual traditions. In this unit, you will take a critical approach to cross-disciplinary, cross-cultural and spiritual theories and research on wellbeing. Through this exploration you will develop a holistic understanding of wellbeing concepts and practices. You will gain an understanding of how wellbeing is determined in different cultural and spiritual settings and across a range of academic disciplines and the implications for Positive Psychology.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student Feedback and Student Evaluations

Feedback

Variations in assessment instructions between Workshop and Moodle materials and other course materials confused some students.

Recommendation

Ensure instructions are consistent between different unit materials.

Feedback from Student Feedback and Unit Coordinator Reflection.

Feedback

Pausing recordings (i.e., not recording) during live online Workshop discussions enabled students to engage with each other and the content more freely.

Recommendation

Continue to record task instructions and pause recording for more sensitive student discussions.
