General Information

Overview

Evidence-based practice is an integral component of practicing as a psychologist, and aligns with the scientist-practitioner model. It is essential that you establish and evaluate your professional practice work based on scientific research. This unit will equip you with knowledge and skills related to the conduct of research evaluation in a professional practice context.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE Data Unit Coordinator reflection Consultations with MPP and MCP teaching teams

Feedback

Add completion of the proposal back into this unit, rather than in the Term 1 unit.

Recommendation

Add the report proposal as an early hurdle assessment for this unit.

Feedback from SUTE Data Individual student emails

Feedback

The timing of the final assessment piece coincides with final placement reviews and other assessment due dates.

Recommendation

Review due date timing for the final report.

Feedback from SUTE Data Feedback from students in class Unit coordinator reflections

Feedback

Students appeared overwhelmed by the amount of information presented early in the term, and because lectures and discussions were delivered live, there was not an opportunity to review the information.

Recommendation

Review weekly content and provide short video recordings for later review.
