General Information

Overview

In this unit, pre-service teachers in the Catholic Education strand of the Bachelor of Education courses prepare for pedagogical roles in the teaching of religion in Catholic schools. You will build professional knowledge of approaches to reading the Bible and interpreting religious texts that recognise the relationship between these texts and the cultural, historical and social contexts in which they were constructed. You will reflect on the guidance provided by official Church documents to explain ways in which interpretive frameworks make the intended meaning of Scripture accessible to and relevant for contemporary learners. In addition, you will make connections between contemporary meanings of religious texts and the rationale, aims and content of curriculum learning areas that focus on personal and social development and wellbeing (HPE) and human expression of culture and spirituality (The Arts) for the purpose of designing curriculum that is inclusive, engaging and relevant for students from diverse social, cultural and religious backgrounds. You will apply your knowledge of storytelling and meaning-making approaches to interpretation to design resources and select and justify strategies for teaching a parable or miracle as the basis for inclusive practices. A focus of this design process will be to explain values, religious experience and beliefs to learners from diverse social and cultural backgrounds in a chosen level of primary schooling (early, middle or upper primary year levels).

Assessment Tasks

1 Analysis and critical reflection

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The Church document Dei Verbum (which means the Word of God) provides the following advice on the interpretation of sacred texts: "...since God speaks in Sacred Scripture through men in human fashion, the interpreter of Sacred Scripture, in order to see clearly what God wanted to communicate to us, should carefully investigate what meaning the sacred writers really intended, and what God wanted to manifest by means of their words."

1. Describe your understanding of the author/text/reader interpretative framework you have investigated as an approach to reading, studying and understanding the stories of the Christian Bible and explain how these approaches help you to understand the ways in which meaning making approaches to learning from Scripture are influenced by a reader's culture and experience in contemporary contexts.

2. Reflect on the value of these hermeneutical skills for teachers in the development of biblical theology and their practices in teaching religion to students in primary and/ or early years classes in Catholic schools.

Length: 1500 words

This task provides opportunities for demonstrating achievement of the following Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (Graduate Level): 2.1, 6.2, 6.4

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (25 Aug 2023) 11:45 pm AEST

2 Rationale, justification and design of a resource and teaching strategies for use of one Bible story in early, middle or upper primary school.

Assessment Type

Practical and Written Assessment

Task Description

Step 1: Choose a parable or healing miracle (examples include 'The healing of the blind Bartimaeus', 'The prodigal son', 'The good Samaritan', etc) that would be suitable for use at a particular year level in the primary school. Name the parable / miracle you have selected in the introduction to your task.

Step 2: Create a resource that would help you to share the meaning of the chosen text with learners in that year level and outline three (3) teaching strategies that would accompany the resource to make the message of the parable/ miracle accessible and relevant for a target group of learners characterised by diverse backgrounds and experiences. Your selected strategies should focus on using the "three worlds of the text" framework so that learners understand the meaning of the scripture passage you have chosen in Step 1. Provide sufficient detail in your description of the chosen teaching strategies to allow a teacher to use the materials effectively in the chosen year level.

Step 3: Write a rationale or justification for your design choices that clearly shows how you have used inclusive approaches to teaching about religious experience that consider the developmental stages of the chosen learner group and the diverse backgrounds and experiences of students enrolled in Catholic school settings. Your response must make explicit links to:

(a) the support provided by Church documents and theories underpinning interpretive frameworks for examining or understanding Biblical texts; and

(b) the rationale, aims and content of curriculum learning areas that teach knowledge, understanding and skills for personal and social development and creative expression at the chosen year level (Personal, social and community health strand of the Australian Curriculum for HPE and The Arts).

Length: 1000 words. Please note that the word limit applies to the rationale / justification only.

Please note: For this task, students enrolled in the Early Childhood degree course must use the F-2 levels of the Australian Curriculum.

This task provides opportunities for engaging with and demonstrating the following Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (Graduate Level) at a consolidating stage: 1.1, 1.3, 2.1, 2.5, 3.3, 3.4, 4.1, 7.2
