Term 1 - 2024

Profile information current as at 15/05/2024 09:02 am

All details in this unit profile for RELG20003 have been officially approved by CQU University and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit, students develop a broad professional knowledge base and understanding of personal and communal prayer and liturgical celebrations as expressions of Christian beliefs and faith practices that are integral to Catholic school communities. Students examine the form and purpose of types of prayer and analyse approaches to teaching and experiencing prayer in classroom settings and the wider Catholic school community. They explore the origins, historical development, ritual structure and theological principles underpinning the Christian sacraments and reflect on the roles and responsibilities of teachers in the Catholic school system for participating in, and supporting students, families and the wider school community, in the liturgical practices and celebrations of the contemporary Catholic faith community.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Tasks

1 Analytic Response

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Using course materials and some independent research critically reflect on:

- the role of teachers in Catholic schools to shape and model prayer practices in a contemporary primary classroom.
- how images of God influence prayer rituals and practices in a contemporary primary classroom.

Length: 2000 words

Context:

The assessment consists of a critical reflection of the issues and challenges facing teachers in Catholic schools teaching prayer in a contemporary classroom. Once these challenges and issues have been identified (several 3-4) the critical reflection will also include how images of God can impact these challenges and issues.

All challenges and issues facing teachers including the images of God are critically reflected on through the lens of the forms and expressions of prayer, the cycle of the liturgical year and the spiritual tradition chosen. The critical reflection will be supported with the analysis of the challenges and issues facing teachers in Catholic schools in teaching and expressing Christian prayer.

Scaffolding:

1. Choose one of the following Christian spiritual traditions to support the critical reflection:

- Ignatian, St Ignatius of Loyola
- Marian, St Mary - Mother of God
- Josephite, St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

2. Use descriptions and explanations to demonstrate an in-depth knowledge and understanding of how to use the chosen spiritual tradition (eg. Ignatian, Marian, etc) in

- personal and communal prayer
- the forms of prayer
- the expressions of prayer
- the cycle of the liturgical year

3. Identify and analyse several (3-4) challenges and issues facing teachers in Catholic schools teaching and expressing Christian prayer.

4. Critically reflect on the images of God (in light of all of the above) that influence prayer rituals and practices in a contemporary primary classroom that is influenced by your chosen spiritual tradition above.
5. Critically reflect on teachers' roles in shaping and modelling prayer practices in primary classrooms using # 1, 2, 3 and 4 above.
6. The critical reflection will also identify possible strategies to address the challenges and issues using the knowledge and understanding and tradition of spirituality (Selected in Step 1).
7. Evidence of engagement with weeks 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 of course materials must be apparent in the sources used.

Example:

How do all of these factors impact the challenges and issues facing teachers?

- How can the aspects of (Ignatian, Marian, or Josephite) spirituality help a teacher with the identified challenges and issues of teaching prayer in the contemporary primary classroom?
- Does the (Ignatian, Marian, or Josephite) spirituality help teachers with the identified challenges and issues through forms and expressions of prayer. If so, how? If not, why not?
- Does the (Ignatian, Marian, or Josephite) spirituality help teachers with the identified challenges and issues through the liturgical year? If so, how? If not, why not?
- How does the (Ignatian, Marian, Josephite) spiritual tradition envisage the image of God and can this assist teachers with the identified challenges and issues as well as their role to shape, model, teach and build learners' understanding of personal and communal prayer in a contemporary primary classroom? If so, how? If not, why?

Definition of cognitive verbs that apply to completion of this task can be found in the description for Assessment Task 1 on the Moodle site.

2 Design of an Information Resource

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Using course materials (references supplied throughout) and some independent research (recommended sites given):

- Create and design a PowerPoint (PPT) resource (including notes) suitable for a professional development session that will inform and teach Catholic school primary teachers about one of the Catholic Christian sacraments of initiation
- Critically reflect on:
 - the resource by justifying your decision/s about the design and its effectiveness for the target audience (must be explicitly described e.g. 100 primary school teachers predominantly of Catholic faith background with 10-15 of other faith traditions or no faith tradition)
 - the contemporary pastoral and practical issues associated with explaining and teaching the sacrament to the target audience.

Context:

The resource will demonstrate knowledge of one of the sacraments of initiation and explicitly explain and communicate the theological links between the three Catholic sacraments of initiation and how the sacraments of initiation support the Church's mission in the broader school community.

The resource will show an understanding of a diverse target audience (Catholic primary school teachers), and consideration of their needs.

The reflection will justify your decision/s about the resource design and its effectiveness for the target audience and demonstrate an understanding of the contemporary pastoral and practical issues associated with explaining and teaching the sacrament to the target audience.

Length:

Resource (PowerPoint) has no word limit

Critical reflection 1000 words

Scaffolding:

- Throughout the resource there must be evidence of engagement with weeks 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the course materials.
- Explicitly explain and communicate the theological links between the three Catholic sacraments of initiation.
- The resource needs to be considered in its entirety rather than done in specific segments. (That is, the origin, theology and mission of the Church should be referred to and documented throughout the presentation.)
- Engagement with the Rite of the Sacrament is a must, e.g.
 - Rite of Baptism
 - Order of Confirmation
 - The Order of the Mass

Structuring your response:

- Suggested length of resource: 30 – 50 slides with accompanying notes pages below the slide to support the information on the slide.
- Notes are very important and will support the slide and indicate your in-depth knowledge of the origin, theology, ritual elements and mission
- Please see information on Moodle site pertaining to creating an effective and informative PPT presentation.
- Use the comprehensive list of references supplied for your Reference List and include the in-text reference in the notes -not on the slide
- Use the images in the lecture PPTs as they have been acknowledged in the correct format.
- The reflection is to be written in essay format with a distinct introduction, body and conclusion.
- Justification and reasoning must be evident.
- Check Assessment Task 2 PPT on the Moodle site for more information

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
