General Information

Overview

This unit provides you with an understanding of Australian society in an increasingly diverse and globalising world and how it has developed over time. It will examine how Australian history has helped to define Australian national identities. You will explore issues of power and social change and consider a range of social issues using sociological concepts. This will give you an understanding of the politico economic distribution of resources that shape social inequalities around culture, ethnicity, "race", gender and sexuality. You will develop an understanding of Australian Indigenous issues, processes of settlement and colonisation and multiculturalism and the implications of the globalisation of society. In this way the unit will be the basis for a professional career in human service and other workplaces.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit evaluation

Feedback

The textbook was complex and difficult to understand.

Recommendation

Alternative first year textbooks and CQU library eBook options will be explored as a possible replacement.

Feedback from Unit evaluation & email

Feedback

Check and fix broken links and communicate when extra resources provided on Moodle.

Recommendation

Extra effort will be directed to ensuring all functional links to resources & timely delivery.

Feedback from Unit evaluation

Feedback

More time is needed per question for the timed online multiple choice quiz and too many concepts tested.

Recommendation

Additional time will be provided to students due to their lack of familiarity with online quiz assessments. More practice quizzes will be provided to increase the learning of concepts and deeper understanding in preparation for the assessment quiz.

Feedback from Unit evaluation

Feedback

Some topics were difficult to grasp such as globalisation and identities (gender and sexuality)

Recommendation

Resources for learning about these topics will be incorporated into their respective weeks by encouraging the use of the sociological perspective and examining examples (newspaper, social media, film) of social reality. Tutorials and Moodle material will be structured to allow students to practice their skills and to scaffold their learning.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Understand contemporary Australian society in a global context
2. Identify the relevance of sociological concepts in everyday life
3. Outline the role of cultural diversity in Australian history and identity
4. Examine the role of colonialism and resistance in the lives of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People - both past and present.
