

SOWK11015 Professional Communication in Human Services

Term 2 - 2023

Profile information current as at 06/05/2024 05:43 pm

All details in this unit profile for SOWK11015 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit introduces you to professional communication skills within social work and the human services industry. You will acquire knowledge about the cultural context of communication. You will develop an understanding of the nature and contexts of professional helping relationships and how these differ from non-professional relationships; the importance of the working alliance and communication; the use of self; and how to facilitate self-determination when communicating. You will develop practical skills and knowledge in professional active listening skills, and in reflective practice and writing. You will be required to participate in assessable tasks in the relevant residential to complete the requirements of this unit. Attendance at residential is compulsory and is required under the Australian Social Work Education and Accreditation Standards 2020.

Offerings For Term 2 - 2023

- Mixed Mode

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Residential Schools

This unit has a Compulsory Residential School for distance mode students and the details are:

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment 1: Attendance at Residential School (Pass/Fail)

Assessment Type

On-campus Activity

Task Description

The aim of this assessment is to help you develop your active listening skills with your student peers in group work activities during the residential school. Attending and completing the five-day residential school is a compulsory requirement of this unit. The residential school is delivered on-campus at Bundaberg, QLD and Geraldton, WA. This is non-negotiable and the dates cannot be changed.

The residential school will be held from Monday 31st July 2023 to Friday 4th August 2023 from 9:00am – 4:30pm each day. We will finish early on Friday 4th August at 2pm and you are not able to leave before this time.

You will need to provide evidence of your attendance at the residential school.

There will be a sign-in sheet available for every session. You need to ensure that you sign in and out of every session. After each session, teaching staff will review the attendance sheet report to ensure that students are present for the entire session. Teaching staff will not follow up if you are absent, it will be solely your responsibility to ensure that the 'record of attendance' is completed correctly.

To meet the course accreditation requirements of the Australian Association of Social Workers (AASW), a student cannot miss any more than two hours of the residential school and must provide a reason and sufficient supporting documentation to do so, for example if there is a significant unforeseen event or illness. The AASW requires that all social work students complete at least 20 days of face-to-face learning activities across the accredited social work program.

You must pass this assessment to pass the unit. Failure to pass this assessment will result in the final grade of 'Fail' for the entire unit.

2 Assessment 2: Active Listening Skills Reflection

Assessment Type

Practical and Written Assessment

Task Description

The aim of this assessment is to demonstrate your knowledge and skills regarding active listening and therapeutic communication.

Part A: Active Listening Demonstration

During residential school, you will be required to engage in a 10-minute discussion with another student about a challenging work experience or challenging learning experience. This discussion is to be recorded for submission. Please ensure the discussion is not about significant personal issues, as this is not a counselling session, rather it is a demonstration of active listening and therapeutic communication skills.

Your active listening demonstration, should include the following:

- the use of communication skills which include empathy and sensitive use of self,
- the ability to apply the AASW values of respect and self-determination in the helping context, and
- Active Listening Skills clusters that are practiced during the Residential School; particularly attending, following, and reflecting.

Important Note: This demonstration is not a role play of counselling skills; it is a demonstration of active listening skills. Please also respect the privacy of participants and their confidentiality in discussions.

Part B: Reflection of Active Listening Skills Demonstration

The purpose of this reflection is for you to critique your active listening skills, identify your strengths and areas that need further development, and consider what you might do in the future to improve your listening skills.

Please address the following:

- outline the situation (very briefly).
- identify and analyse your strengths and capacity to listen effectively, demonstrate empathy and sensitivity and how these influenced you and the conversation.
- identify your own assumptions, values, and past experiences and how these influenced you and the conversation.
- reflect on language used (verbal and body language), what it implied socially and culturally and how it influenced you and the conversation.
- identify areas that you want to develop, why and how you might do that.
- reflect on feedback provided from social work academics and others while at residential school. What do you think about it, what did you find helpful/not helpful and how you will use it or why you wouldn't use it in the future?

You should use a minimum of three references to connect your ideas to the literature.

Your understanding should be informed by the unit material and your personal reading of the literature.

Use the above bullet points as a guide for your own critique. This is a reflective piece, not a formal essay, you can write in first-person perspective.

Literature and references

In this assessment, use at least three references to support your analysis. You may also use seminal scholarly literature where relevant. Suitable references include peer-reviewed journal articles as well as textbooks and credible websites. When sourcing information, consider the five elements of a quality reference: currency, authority, relevance, objectivity, and coverage. Grey literature sourced from the internet must be from reputable websites such as from government, university, or peak national bodies: for example, the Australian Association of Social Workers.

Requirements

- Use a cover page that includes your name and student number, the subject code, the date, and the number of words in your submission.
- Use a conventional and legible size 12 font, such as Times New Roman or Arial, with 2.0 line spacing and 2.54cm page margins (standard pre-set margin in Microsoft Word).
- Include page numbers on the top right side of each page in a header.
- You may write in the first-person or third-person perspective.
- Use formal academic language.
- Use the seventh edition American Psychological Association (APA) referencing style. The CQUniversity Academic Learning Centre has an online APA Referencing Style Guide.
- The word count is considered from the introduction's first word to the conclusion's last word. The word count excludes the reference list but includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Resources

- You can use unit provided materials and other credible sources (e.g. journal articles, books) to reference your argument. The quality and credibility of your sources are important.

- We recommend that you access your discipline specific library guide: the Social Work and Community Services Guide.
- We recommend you use EndNote to manage your citations and reference list. More information on how to use EndNote is available at the CQUniversity Library website.
- For information on academic communication please go to the Academic Learning Centre Moodle site. The Academic Communication section has many helpful resources including information for students with English as a second language.
- Submit a draft before the due date to review your Turnitin Similarity Score before making a final submission. Instructions are available here.

Assessment Due Date

Week 8 Monday (4 Sept 2023) 11:59 pm AEST

The practical assessment is completed during residential school and the written reflection is due on 11.59 PM (AEST) Monday 4th September 2023, Week 8.

3 Assessment 3: Culture and Professional Communication

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The aim of this assessment is to develop your knowledge about cross cultural communication with a particular focus on working with First Nations service users.

This assessment task requires you to write an essay which discusses communication with diverse groups, with a particular focus on working with First Nations service users in your local community. You should identify a First Nations service provider in your local community. Your essay should address the following points:

- Describe how communication is culturally constructed and the implications of this for the human service professional.
- Describe and contrast communication in Western culture vs. First Nations culture and the implications for the human service worker.
- Identify and discuss the implications of the socio-political and historical issues of working with First Nations people and how this influences communication. Highlight some of the past policies that may have caused mistrust for service users.
- Identify how you might overcome communication barriers that have been created by these issues. What strategies might you implement?
- Explore AASW Documentation (e.g., Code of Ethics and Practice Standards) and highlight recommendations from the profession about working and communication with First Nations clients and communities.

Literature and references

In this assessment, use at least ten references to support your analysis. You may also use seminal scholarly literature where relevant. Suitable references include peer-reviewed journal articles as well as textbooks and credible websites. When sourcing information, consider the five elements of a quality reference: currency, authority, relevance, objectivity, and coverage. Grey literature sourced from the internet must be from reputable websites such as from government, university, or peak national bodies: for example, the Australian Association of Social Workers.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
