

SOWK11016 Human Services and Statutory Contexts

Term 2 - 2017

Profile information current as at 13/05/2024 03:32 pm

All details in this unit profile for SOWK11016 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

You will examine the relationship between human services and statutory contexts, and will develop an understanding of the importance of integrating knowledge of statutory systems and processes with human services practice and professional ethics. You are introduced to the origins of the statutory contexts for human service in Australia, and to the role which human service practitioners are required to play within these contexts. Particular statutory areas are explored in some detail.

Pre-requisites or Co-requisites

There are no requisites for this unit.

Important note: Students enrolled in a subsequent unit who failed their pre-requisite unit, should drop the subsequent unit before the census date or within 10 working days of Fail grade notification. Students who do not drop the unit in this timeframe cannot later drop the unit without academic and financial liability. See details in the Assessment Policy and Procedure \(Higher Education Coursework\).

Offerings For Term 2 - 2017

- Distance

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback and feedback via moodle and live lectures.

Feedback

Students enjoyed the eFIL assessment which involved high levels of engagement with student peers, engagement with the course material, and receiving regular feedback.

Recommendation

Review the effectiveness of eFIL to meet the learning outcomes and other assessment items within the course.

Feedback from Student evaluation.

Feedback

Students would like to see the online lectures updated.

Recommendation

Review and update online lectures.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Explain the origins of the statutory frameworks within which human service workers practice
2. Articulate the difference between criminal and civil statutory processes and law
3. Differentiate between the discrete jurisdictions within statutory systems with reference to the roles which human service workers are required to implement
4. Explain how statutory systems impact on the work of human services workers, clients, organisations and the community
5. Explain the interaction of statutory systems and processes with professional codes of ethics in human service practice.

Assessment Tasks

1 Electronic Focused Interactive Learning Part A - Quiz (zes)

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

Task Description

Electronic Focused Interactive Learning (eFIL) is an innovative method of assessment that encourages active learning and communication among students, irrespective of location. The eFIL technique will be used in assessable online exercises in weeks 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. In weeks 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 students will complete a multiple choice quiz. In total there are 5 fortnightly quizzes and online group discussions to be completed. It is an assessment requirement that students attempt all 5 quizzes.

What's Involved?

In weeks 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10 students will complete a multiple choice quiz. The questions will be based on the fortnight's unit content, with questions for each study week (i.e. quiz 1 will include questions from week 1 and week 2's unit content). Students will then have the opportunity to re-sit the quiz after discussing their answers with peers in a small group online discussion forum. The requirements of the group discussion are outlined in the Assessment 2 eFIL Part B - Group Discussion task. Please note: If students have passed the respective group discussion forum for the quiz, the highest mark achieved in the two attempts will go towards the overall mark in this assessment. Students who do not participate in and pass the group discussion forum will not receive any marks for that fortnight's quiz.

How is the eFIL different from a normal quiz?

eFIL assessment provides students with the opportunity to present and discuss their answers with a small group of students online, just as if they were in a classroom tutorial session.

From the Saturday to Wednesday evening following the completion of the fortnightly quiz, students will be able to enter a small group discussion forum, where they will have the opportunity to discuss and compare their answers with their peers. Students will then have until the Friday evening deadline to take the quiz a second time, with the benefit of knowing the views of other students.

There is NO opportunity to make up eFIL exercises due to their interactive nature. However in extenuating circumstances students can apply for an extension submitted through the AES (Assessment Extension System) located on the unit Moodle site. In situations where an extension is approved, the student will not be able to partake in the small group discussion forum for that fortnight's quiz but will be graded on their first attempt of the quiz.

A detailed schedule of dates, times and quiz content will be posted on Moodle.

Each fortnight's eFIL exercise will comprise a weighted 10% of the unit grade.

Assessment Due Date

eFIL activities (quiz and group discussion) are due fortnightly for weeks 2,4,6,8 & 10 of term. The quiz is completed in Moodle and undertaken in whatever setting you choose. A detailed schedule of dates, times and quiz content will be posted on Moodle.

Return Date to Students

Week 12 Friday (6 Oct 2017)

Quiz results will be calculated immediately, however the quiz result may not reflect the final grade for that efil exercise. Students who do not participate in and pass the Group Discussion will not be awarded marks for that fortnight's quiz.

Weighting

50%

Minimum mark or grade

To achieve an overall pass in this assessment students must attempt each of the 5 quizzes, participate and pass the respective group discussion for each quiz, and achieve at least 50% of the overall grade for this assessment.

Assessment Criteria

- All 5 quizzes have been attempted.
- Completion of the quiz and the group discussion task for the respective fortnight's quiz (Students who do not participate in and pass the group discussion forum will not receive any marks for that fortnight's quiz).
- Demonstrates understanding of fortnightly study topics.

2 Electronic Focused Learning Part B - Group Discussion

Assessment Type

Group Discussion

Task Description

As part of the Electronic Focused Interactive Learning (eFIL) assessment task students are required to participate in a small group online discussion forum after the completion of each quiz in weeks 2, 4, 6, 8, and 10. In total there are five fortnightly quizzes and online discussions to be completed. The discussion forums are designed to encourage active learning and communication among students, irrespective of location. Students will then have the opportunity to re-sit the quiz after discussing their answers with peers in a small group online discussion forum. The Unit Coordinator will allocate students to small groups for this task. A detailed schedule of dates, times and quiz content will be posted on Moodle.

Each eFIL exercise includes the quiz and group discussion and comprises a weighted 10% of the unit grade. Please note: Irrespective of student's result in the quiz, students who do participate in and pass that fortnight's group discussion forum will not receive any marks for that quiz.

You are expected to adhere to acceptable netiquette protocols in all your communications on the Moodle site.

What's Involved?

From the Saturday to Wednesday evening following the completion of the fortnightly quiz, students will be able to enter a small group discussion forum, where they will have the opportunity to discuss and compare their answers with their peers. Students will then have until the Wednesday evening deadline to take the quiz a second time, with the benefit of knowing the views of other students.

The following points may help facilitate discussion in your small group forum:

- Post an explanation about WHY you chose the answers you selected for the quiz and participate in the group discussion.
- Respond to another student about their answer selection and discuss the content so that it provides insight and learning for your student peer.

Assessment Due Date

Group discussion forums will take place fortnightly for weeks 3,5,7,9 and 11 of term. A detailed schedule of dates for quizzes and group discussion forums will be posted on Moodle

Return Date to Students

3 Written Assessment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Drawing on the unit material for weeks one to twelve, and other sources you have located through independent research, describe how the knowledge required by human service workers of the judiciary system, legal accountability and statutory obligations is crucial to effective professional human service practice in one of the following practice contexts.

- Mental Health
- Domestic and Family Violence
- Refugees and Migrants
- Child Protection
- Youth Justice

Product

In essay format describe how the legal framework is relevant to the human service worker (professional context), the client and to the organisational context. Your paper needs to include the knowledge required by human service workers of the judiciary system, legal accountability and statutory obligations for effective professional human service practice in the chosen practice context. Give one or two examples of how these are evident in practice. When appropriate, refer to the relevant legislation, and cite and interpret specific sections which are relevant. Make sure all sources are properly cited, and use your own words to describe your understanding of any facts or ideas discussed, rather than use strings of quotes (quotes, especially quotes on their own, seldom demonstrate learning and understanding of course content).

Word limit

2000 words (excluding references and appendices). You must remain within 10% of the word limit (maximum 1% of the overall mark will be deducted for every 100 words over or below).

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
