General Information

Overview

This unit examines a range of theories that have informed professional social work practice. You will be offered with learning opportunities to identify and critique key theories as well as apply them to contemporary social work practice. You will examine the usefulness of theories alongside their strengths and limitations in informing social work interventions in various fields of practice. In addition, you will engage in critical reflection to support your emerging ethical theoretical framework for professional social work practice.

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from SUTE data

The unit and lectures were well organized.

Recommendation

Continue with the general format of the unit delivery in Moodle

Breaking the prerecorded lecture content into smaller (2 or 3 recordings) would make a positive difference and help stay focused.

Recommendation

Review this recommendation around producing shorter videos.
