

SOWK13011 Community Practice

Term 2 - 2018

Profile information current as at 27/04/2024 05:13 pm

All details in this unit profile for SOWK13011 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit is designed so that you are able to compare different approaches to community practice and provide the relevant knowledge and skills to critically analyse contexts for community work. You will develop appropriate strategic responses in a range of differing community contexts, including different cultural contexts and from an international perspective. You will develop an understanding of social innovation and the use of social entrepreneurship and social enterprise within communities.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Tasks

1 Online Discussion (500 words each)

Assessment Type

Online discussion forum

Task Description

Task Description: This assessment requires you to demonstrate your understanding and engagement with the weekly topics. You will need to make an online forum posting for weeks 3, 5 and 7, in response to that week's question. Each posting should be approximately 500 words and appropriately referenced.

Your posting needs to thoughtfully address the week's question/s which are outlined on the forum. The posting should provide a brief outline of the information you have gathered, together with your own opinion or viewpoint. Where appropriate, you should consider making reference to the applicability in your own community.

All of your posts need to be uploaded as one word document for marking.

2 Analysis of Community Practice (1000 words)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Task Description: This essay requires you to critically analyse one of the community development approaches or perspectives introduced in the first half of the term. The assignment will facilitate your in-depth understanding of one of the approaches and assist in your skills critically analysing different practice perspectives

You are required to submit a written paper of approximately 1500 words. Your paper will be an analysis of one community development perspective. You are encouraged to choose one of the approaches outlined in class but if there is another approach that you have come across in your own reading and research that you wish to focus on you may do so

The essay requires you to:

- * Provide an overview of a Community Development approach or perspective - including outlining its history and how it's in use in the world today
- * Demonstrate your understanding of the conceptual/theoretical knowledge and community development principles that underpin the approach
- * Consider the advantages and disadvantages of adopting this approach when working within Australian communities today, making particular reference to working with Indigenous communities

3 Role of a community practitioner (1500 words)

Assessment Type

Report

Task Description

Your paper will introduce a community development project or initiative. The paper will need to outline the project, the community development approach that was utilised and explore the role of the community development practitioner within this context. Your paper will also need to provide an overview of the skills needed by practitioners when working within this particular approach. You are asked to also create a flyer that would explain the community development initiative to its intended clientele, this is to be included as an Appendix.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
