

SOWK13014 Contemporary Social Policy

Term 2 - 2020

Profile information current as at 01/05/2024 05:43 am

All details in this unit profile for SOWK13014 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

Social policy is one of seven methods of change used in social work practice. This unit explores the historical, political and normative dimensions of social policy and policy-making in Australia and the international context. You will explore concepts such as the welfare state and neo-liberalism and you will examine and critically analyse social policy that is relevant to human service contexts.

Offerings For Term 2 - 2020

- Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes - in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

All University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

You may wish to view these policies:

Assessment Tasks

1 Electronic Focused Interactive Learning (eFIL)

Assessment Type

Electronic Focused Interactive Learning (eFIL)

Task Description

Electronic Focused Interactive Learning (eFIL) is an innovative method of assessment that encourages active learning and communication among students, irrespective of location. The eFIL technique will be used in assessable online exercises in weeks 2, 4, 6, 8, and 10. Each eFIL exercise will comprise a weighted 8% of the unit grade. In total there are five fortnightly quizzes and online discussions to be completed. Students must gain 50% to pass this assessment, which equates to 20 marks over 5 eFIL activities.

What's Involved?

In weeks 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10, students will complete a multiple-choice quiz containing 4 policy questions (worth 2 marks each). The questions will be based on the fortnight's unit content, with 2 questions for each study week (ie quiz 1 will include a question from week 1 and week 2's unit content). Students make two (2) discussion posts in a forum discussing their answers. Students will then re-sit the quiz a second time. A detailed schedule of dates, times and quiz content will be posted on Moodle.

How is the eFIL different from a normal quiz?

eFIL assessment provides students with the opportunity to present and discuss their answers with a small group of students online, just as if they were in a classroom tutorial session. From the Saturday to Monday evening following the completion of the fortnightly quiz, students will be able to enter a small group discussion forum (allocated by the unit coordinator), where they will have the opportunity to discuss and compare their answers with their peers. Students will have until the Monday evening deadline to take the quiz a second time, with the benefit of knowing the views of other students. Please note: Only the second attempt is graded, although both attempts must be recorded to accrue points towards your overall grade. There is NO opportunity to make up eFIL exercises due to their interactive nature. However, in extenuating circumstances students can apply for an extension submitted through the AES (Assessment Extension System) located on the unit Moodle site. In situations where an extension is approved, the student will not be required to partake in the small group discussion forum for that fortnight's quiz but will be graded for their first attempt of the quiz.

Assessment Criteria

In order to receive marks for the second attempt of the quiz, students must meet the minimum requirements for the group discussion (2 online posts) which include:

Discussion Post 1 (Post after completion of quiz 1)

Post an explanation about WHY you chose the answers you selected for the quiz. An example of this, "I selected that the sky is blue because molecules in the air scatter blue light from the sun. This was substantiated by Jones and Jones 1992"

Discussion Post 2 (Response to another student):

Respond to another student about their answer selection and discuss the content so that it provides insight and learning for your student peer. An example of this, "Thankyou for your post. I was unaware that this was why the sky was blue and further research indicates that this is because we see red and orange colours because blue light has been scattered out and away from the line of sight".

2 Written Assessment

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

In preparation for this assignment you are required to examine the 'Assimilation Policy'

Assimilation was a framework of policies to assimilate Aboriginal Australians. Therefore your research will examine a wide range of policies, bills and legislation that were aimed at assimilation.

Using the course material and independent reading, research the policy context which has shaped the Assimilation policy. Your paper should include:

- An overview of the historical, social and economic, ideological, theoretical, and institutional context of the Assimilation Policy, supported by the research.
 - A focus on the broader values and political contexts which have influenced the policy making process. For example, what were the significant triggers for major policy changes in Assimilation Policy (these may be key inquiries and reports, major economic changes, shift in societal perceptions on particular issues, and so on)
 - The principles underpinning the welfare state and the neo-liberal state as the overall context shaping social policy.
- The paper should be written in academic style, with an introduction, a body, a conclusion and a list of references.

Word Limit

1500 words. The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference list and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations. You must remain within 10% of the word limit.

3 Online Quiz

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

Task Description

Assessment Type

Online Quiz(zes)

The multiple-choice online quiz will test your understanding of fundamental concepts, perspectives and facts covered over the 12 weeks of term. There will be 30 multiple-choice questions to be answered in 40 minutes. There is only one correct or best answer to each question, and you need to select the option corresponding to this answer. There are no penalties for incorrect answers.

While you can refer to the textbook or other resources while you are taking the quiz, it is not possible to do this for every question because of the time limit. Therefore, you need to have a good understanding of the unit content, including the core readings, before taking the quiz. Each student will receive a customized quiz, where questions are drawn from a large test bank and chosen in random fashion so that collusion will not be possible.

The multiple-choice online quiz will be made available through the Moodle site on the 9th October 2019 between 4am and 11pm (Australian Eastern Standard Time). It can be completed using any computer that has internet access. It will be delivered through the 'Assessment' block of the unit site and will only become available on the due date.

You must have access to a computer with Internet connection to complete the quiz. It is your responsibility to make time to complete the quiz on the due date, and to arrange for a reliable internet connection. Before you take the quiz make sure that you are ready (ie a proper revision has been done) and choose a time and computer/place with minimum distractions to sit for the quiz (ie do not have external disturbances from people, pets ect). Be conscious of the time limit while taking the quiz. Plan to have started the quiz by 11.00pm (AEST) at the latest to ensure full completion before the quiz closes at 11.45pm (AEST).

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
