Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Teaching team reflection and collaboration with head of course - speech pathology

Feedback

Case study viva may not be the most appropriate way to assess knowledge in an anatomy and physiology unit. Written assessment (on a case study) may be more appropriate

Recommendation

It is recommended that the case study assessment be changed from an oral to a written assessment.

Feedback from Student evaluation

Weekly case studies provide a functional understanding of theoretical anatomy

Recommendation

It is recommended that weekly case studies align with weekly anatomy content to provide a functional understanding of the anatomy relevant to speech pathology.
