General Information

Overview

In this unit you will begin to develop the practical skills required for speech pathology practice, through interaction with children and adults in a structured, interprofessional setting. You will have the opportunity to engage with both children and adults while developing your skills in informal assessment, case history taking, test administration and therapy program delivery. Clinical reasoning and reflective practice are embedded throughout the unit. There is an emphasis on the integration of theoretical knowledge and the development of clinical skills, with a focus on working within the International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) framework and understanding the importance of using evidence based practice. Throughout this unit you must maintain all pre-clinical requirements, as outlined in the 'Professional Practice Guide for Allied Health Students - Pre Practice Requirements' handbook.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Have Your Say Peer reflection by interdisciplinary unit coordinators

Feedback

The assessment tasks were not explained early enough and with sufficient clarity for each assessment task to be accurately completed. There were differences between the professions in the interprofessional assessment requirements.

Recommendation

The unit coordinator will continue to explain all assessment tasks at the beginning of term and actively encourage students to seek further clarification if required. The similarities and differences in work-integrated assessment tasks for each discipline will be more explicitly explained to the speech pathology students.

Feedback from Have Your Say

Feedback

Work-integrated learning experiences with prep age primary school students was enjoyed by the students and facilitated their learning.

Recommendation

The authentic paediatric experiences in work-integrated learning will be maintained. The work-integrated learning activities should continue to include students from occupational therapy.

Feedback from Have Your Say Unit coordinator reflection

Feedback

Some students had difficulty accessing Moodle resources.

Recommendation

The unit coordinator will seek assistance from Learning & Teaching regarding the Moodle setup prior to the Moodle publication dates for Term 1, 2019. The unit coordinator will check the links to Moodle readings and more explicitly explain to students how unlinked resources can be accessed through the library.

Feedback from Unit coordinator reflection Have Your Say

Feedback

The students had difficulty submitting assessments through Mahara.

Recommendation

The unit coordinator will arrange additional student support in Mahara before reintroducing this as an assessment submission mode. In-class opportunities will be provided to practice using Mahara.

Term Specific Information

Welcome to SPCH12004 Speech Pathology Work-Integrated Learning 1.

In order to pass this unit, you must attain at least 50% for each and every assessment task.

This unit of study is the beginning of your transition from student to clinician and requires you to participate in community activities involving children and their carers or teachers.

Please ensure that your clinical pre-requisites have been met and uploaded to SONIA before the beginning of term. All certificates must be current for the full duration of the term.

The learning experiences in the unit will develop your early clinical skills in assessment. Many of these clinical skills are common across health professions. Therefore, SPCH12004 Speech Pathology Work-Integrated Learning 1 provides you with an opportunity to learn with, alongside and from students studying other health professional courses.

This year you will have learning experiences each week to develop speech pathology specific skills. These classes and clinical activities will occur with other students enrolled in SPCH12004 Speech Pathology Work-Integrated Learning 1.

You will share some classes and learning experiences each week with occupational therapy students studying OCCT12003 Occupational Performance across the Lifespan. During the term you will have some learning experiences with students studying their Master of Clinical Psychology.

Your participation in these practical learning experiences and your completion of written tasks are linked to your unit assessment.

Your Unit Coordinator is Judy Broadhurst. You can contact Judy either email j.broadhurst@cqu.edu.au or phone 07 4930 6481.

Assessment Type

Reflective Practice Assignment

Task Description

Reflective practice is an important requirement for both student and practising speech pathologists, providing a process by which speech pathologists can learn by reflecting on past experiences; identify strengths and opportunities for further growth and development; and develop future goals for the continuous improvement of their clinical competency.

This assessment task requires you to demonstrate how you have progressed each generic professional competency and write personal goals for your development in the next term.

To successfully complete this assessment for SPCH12004, you will need to:

1. Review the four generic professional competency areas (reasoning, communication, lifelong learning, and professionalism). You will need to address each of the Novice Level behavioural descriptors for each of the competencies.
2. Identify your personal areas of strength and your personal areas of difficulty. You will need to provide explicit examples from your study and clinical experience.
3. Explain how you have progressed your competence over the term by comparing and contrasting your examples; describing your action during the term; and the impact this action had on your competence.
4. Reference the feedback you have received through your studies in CB87 to date, to demonstrate how you have changed or developed or grown in your thinking as a result of that feedback.
5. Identify at least one future opportunity (goal) to further progress each generic professional competency. You must include a goal for Reasoning, a goal for Communication, a goal for Lifelong Learning, and a goal for Professionalism.
6. Complete and submit all documents or resources which you have used to evidence your learning (such as assignment feedback or assessed resources).
