General Information

Overview

In this unit, you will continue to develop your clinical and professional competence in extension from observations completed in SPCH12002. You will demonstrate advanced beginner-level competencies in a work-integrated learning experience in the paediatric population. You will develop an understanding of professional topics involved in clinical practice. You must have completed all pre-clinical requirements, and maintain these requirements throughout the unit to engage in your work-integrated learning experience.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Students commented that the inclusion of two intensive days at the beginning of the term was beneficial in preparing them for placement.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the unit coordinator continue to deliver the two intensive days at the beginning of the term.

Feedback

Students indicated that the purpose of completing the case report assessment task is not clear.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the relevance of this assessment task be made more explicit in both the task description and verbal explanations to students.
