General Information

Overview

In this unit you will continue your study of acquired neurogenic communication disorders in children and adults. You will need to apply and integrate the concepts learned in SPCH13003 Neurogenic Communication Disorders 1 to the holistic management of neurogenic communication disorders. This unit specifically addresses the evidence-based intervention approaches for acquired neurogenic speech, language, and cognitive communication disorders. You will evaluate the principles of interprofessional and reflective practice, and the International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health framework throughout your study in this unit.

2 Intervention video and presentation

Assessment Type

Practical Assessment

Task Description

You are each provided with three evidence-based therapy techniques/strategies that you will need to thoroughly research and demonstrate your ability to administer these strategies. You will be required to make the appropriate resources for your treatments. This assessment involves the following:

1. You will video record the three different evidence-based therapy strategies that you have been assigned. You must select an appropriate volunteer/s to record your administration of these therapy strategies. In addition to this you will need to design a proforma for your client to sign that gives permission to video and use this video for educational purposes. The videos will be delivered to the Unit Coordinator on a USB or portable hard drive to view in full and grade.
2. You will then present a summary of your videos to the class and engage in discussion of these with the unit coordinator and peers. A PowerPoint or Prezi presentation is required for this part of the assignment.

Assessment Due Date

Week 12 Monday (4 Oct 2021) 9:00 am AEST

Videos to be handed to Unit Coordinator on Monday Week 12 9:00am. Presentations will occur in class time on Wednesday and Friday of Week 12.

3 WRITTEN ASSESSMENT

Assessment Type

Task Description

This written assessment directly relates to your practical assessment of the intervention video and presentation. This is why the two assessments occur close together as you will be doing both in tandem. Assessment two is the practical element and assessment three is the written component. You are required to provide a written description of each of your therapy tasks that demonstrates you have used current best practice in the tasks you have selected for your client/s. Ensure you present your research and reasoning for the use of such intervention techniques and clearly describe your scaffolding (i.e. contingency plans) down and scaffolding up. You will also need to:

- Hypothesise appropriate therapy goals for this task and potential outcome measures
- Identify if your technique is impairment or functionally based
- Discuss how your treatment goals link to the ICF/A-FROM and client centred practice
- Provide a reflection on the processes undertaken for both assessment two and three. Ensure you use one of the reflective practice models that you know from your study thus far to guide your reflection. Reflect upon the research you found, the actual implementation of the therapy strategies, the videoing process, any reactions of your clients and most importantly, how what you have learned from your research of therapy techniques will help you in future clinical practice.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
