General Information

Overview

In this unit you will continue your development of introductory level technical, creative and performance skills within the context of the presentation of a publicly performed theatrical work. Each succeeding unit in Production will require you to demonstrate a greater degree of interpretative and executant skill development. You will have the opportunity to broaden your technical, creative and performance skills in theatre through participation in various creative projects. This may include collaborative or solo creative projects, as well as those with a social innovation goal. You will be required to document the outcomes of this project as part of your personal performance website that you will build upon throughout your course. The building of the content within this website will enable you to critically reflect on your development as a theatre practitioner and to showcase your knowledge and skills to reach your desired career outcomes.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student unit evaluations

Feedback

Students were challenged to build their professional theatre practice while working with an external professional director in the creation of the fully-staged theatre production.

Recommendation

Continue to use the model of engaging an external professional theatre director to direct and choreograph the main-stage production for the term to build student skills in professional theatre practice.

Feedback

Students enjoyed working on a range of performance, creative and technical theatre tasks in the creation of the fully-staged theatre production.

Recommendation

Continue to use a curriculum model whereby all students participate in all aspects of theatre production (performance, creative and technical), during their course of study.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Work independently in the preparation of material for rehearsals and performance
2. Work collaboratively to create all aspects of a theatre production, including performance, technical and creative tasks as assigned
3. Synthesize new ideas into performance, technical and creative roles at an introductory level
4. Execute, during public performance, various technical and performance roles at an introductory level and in a manner appropriate to the genre of theatrical work and the assigned role
5. Participate and actively contribute to a creative project that enables you to enhance your performance, technical and/or creative skills in theatre
6. Maintain a professional theatre practitioner website that synthesises knowledge of self and theatre disciplines to map career and learning outcomes.
