General Information

Overview

Building on Principal Performance Studios 3, you will extend your learning through relevant activities in the music theatre, drama and technical theatre majors. If you are studying the music theatre major, you will concentrate on pursuing greater skills as an actor, as well as developing more complex skills in dance routines building on increasing security in technique in ballet, contemporary, tap and jazz. If you are studying the drama major, you will concentrate on style in vocal delivery and physical expression associated with the performance of a variety of texts, as well as the development of more complex skills in voice and movement. If you are studying technical theatre major, you will explore the technical theatre process through more complex intermediate level practical projects. You are expected to demonstrate cumulative levels of skill and knowledge through this series of units.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from In-class

Feedback

Current industry trends to be maintained, in order to remain industry-ready.

Recommendation

Industry trends will be observed and repertoire adjustments made to maintain cutting-edge standards of quality. This includes the incorporation of solo professional development and working within an ensemble.

Feedback from In-class

Feedback

A continuation of in-class feedback, to maintain industry discipline and continual skill development.

Recommendation

Feedback will continue to be provided in class context, with the aim of encouraging and maintaining industry disciplines and standards of quality.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Apply intermediate level theatre skills, theatre craft and dramatic expression to various acting tasks
2. Perform set dance or movement combinations of increasing complexity relevant to your discipline
3. Apply intermediate level principles of breath usage, support and placement of the voice to various performance exercises
4. Execute and critically analyse various intermediate level production projects and technical tasks
5. Critically reflect on your performance practice and artistic development within your chosen major.

Learning outcomes 1-3 apply to students enrolled in the music theatre and drama majors. Learning outcome 4 applies to students enrolled in the technical theatre major and learning outcome 5 applies to students enrolled in all majors.
