General Information

Overview

In this unit you will investigate the plays and performance practices of Ben Johnson, Christopher (Kit) Marlowe and William Shakespeare. You will study these playwrights' use of language and the evolution of words. You will experiment with the playwrights' writing styles and short performance activities to allow a deep investigation of these writers for the stage. You will explore the stories and structure that make up the plots and plays by Shakespeare, Johnson and Marlowe, comparing their use of literary devices and theatrical techniques.
