Term 2 - 2023

Profile information current as at 25/04/2024 06:50 pm

All details in this unit profile for THTR13107 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will continue to develop an advanced level of technical, creative and performance skills within the context of the presentation of a publicly performed theatrical work. You will have the opportunity to broaden your technical, creative and performance skills in theatre through participation in various creative projects. This may include collaborative or solo creative projects, as well as those with a social innovation goal. You will be required to document the outcomes of this project as part of your personal performance website that you will build upon throughout your course. The building of the content within this website will enable you to critically reflect on your development as a theatre practitioner and to showcase your knowledge and skills to reach your desired career outcomes.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Informal student feedback

Feedback

The creative project allowed students to expand their theatre skills.

Recommendation

Continue to include a creative project as part of this unit to allow students the opportunity to explore a wide variety of theatre learning experiences.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Work independently in the preparation of material for rehearsals and performance
2. Work collaboratively to create all aspects of a theatre production, including performance, technical and creative tasks as assigned
3. Synthesize new ideas into performance, technical and creative roles at a graduate level
4. Execute, during public performance, various technical and performance roles at a graduate level, and in a manner appropriate to the genre of theatrical work and the assigned role
5. Participate and actively contribute to a creative project that enables you to enhance your performance, technical and/or creative skills in theatre
6. Maintain a professional theatre practitioner website that synthesises knowledge of self and theatre disciplines to map career and learning outcomes.

3 Performer website and Reflection

Assessment Type

Portfolio

Task Description

Part A: Develop a professional performer website (15%)

1. Choose a template from freely available website creation software
2. Add your head shot and a minimum of 15 other performance photos
3. Include your contact details
4. Include a performer's bio suitable for a theatre program
5. Include a longer performer's bio suitable for a website
6. Include a curriculum vitae (CV) suitable for an audition
7. Include details of your creative project from this term including description & photos
8. Include your performer showreel.

Part A: Presentation format

Upload a Word document with your name, student number and a URL link to your website.

Part B: Creative Project Reflection (10%)

Length: 750 - 1000 words

This assignment requires you to reflect on the creative project that you have participated in this term. Important aspects of this creative project need to be included in your performer website, where you can include photos and/or video.

This written reflection allows you to think a little deeper about the creative project and therefore you should support your reflection with references to scholarly works that relate to your project. This could include journal articles about the philosophy behind the project, some of its technical challenges, and/or some of its creative aims. This reflection should not be a part of the performer website, but should be uploaded as a separate Word document.

Part B: Presentation format

- This reflection should be uploaded as a Word document, not PDF.
- Use Times New Roman 12 point font, double spaced.
- You may use sub-headings as required.
- In-text referencing should be included using APA 7th edition.
- Include a reference list according to the style guide for APA 7th edition.
- You may include diagrams, tables, pictures if appropriate.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
