

THTR13125 Theatre Studies 4: From Page to Stage

Term 2 - 2019

Profile information current as at 17/05/2024 08:36 pm

All details in this unit profile for THTR13125 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will learn how to analyse various theatrical texts from a variety of dramatic genres. You will analyse important primary source material for meaning and functionality, exploring the concept that plays are designed to be performed and are therefore constructed in specific ways to maximise their effect onstage.

Details

Career Level: Undergraduate

Unit Level: Level 2

Credit Points: 6

Student Contribution Band: 8

Fraction of Full-Time Student Load: 0.125

Pre-requisites or Co-requisites

There are no requisites for this unit.

Important note: Students enrolled in a subsequent unit who failed their pre-requisite unit, should drop the subsequent unit before the census date or within 10 working days of Fail grade notification. Students who do not drop the unit in this timeframe cannot later drop the unit without academic and financial liability. See details in the Assessment Policy and Procedure \(Higher Education Coursework\).

Offerings For Term 2 - 2019

- Mackay
- Online

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Website

This unit has a website, within the Moodle system, which is available two weeks before the start of term. It is important that you visit your Moodle site throughout the term. Please visit Moodle for more information.

Class and Assessment Overview

Recommended Student Time Commitment

Each 6-credit Undergraduate unit at CQUniversity requires an overall time commitment of an average of 12.5 hours of study per week, making a total of 150 hours for the unit.

Class Timetable

Assessment Overview

1. Research Assignment

Weighting: 50%

2. Research Assignment

Weighting: 50%

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

CQUniversity Policies

This list is not an exhaustive list of all University policies. The full list of University policies are available on the CQUniversity Policy site.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit evaluations.

Feedback

No feedback.

Recommendation

Overall improvement in unit satisfaction. Maintain teaching methodologies, resources, assessment tasks and criteria.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Analyse selected play scripts to identify important elements relating to character, action, dialogue and language within the context of the whole work
2. Identify and discuss specific examples from primary sources that influence the practical staging choices for each play
3. Relate the selected scripts to the broader, social and cultural contexts of their respective historical periods.

Term Specific Information

This unit is designed to help you learn how to read drama as a performance based art form and imagine the transition from page to stage. This unit builds on concepts and techniques introduced in THTR11121 - Theatre Studies 2. Script analysis is a reading technique that allows you, as a theatre artist, to fully understand the meaning and functionality of a play; to understand that plays are designed to be performed, and that, as such, they are constructed in specific ways to maximize their effect onstage.

For Semester 2 2019 the schedule has been designed to accommodate the timetable for the intensive production period for the Bachelor of Theatre students in Mackay. Distance students may apply for alternative due dates for the assessments. Distance students must apply for alternative dates before the listed due date. Please contact Dr Linda Lorenza l.lorenza@cqu.edu.au to arrange alternative submission dates.

Assessment Tasks

1 Action Analysis

Assessment Type

Research Assignment

Task Description

Task Description: Action analysis

Part 1: Analysis table*Due Date: Week 3 Monday 29 July 2019, 9am.*Part 2: Short essay*Due Date: Week 4 Monday 5 August 2019, 9am.*Length: 1000-1500-words*Task details:

Complete an action text analysis of William Shakespeare's Hamlet. Choose one scene from the play to analyse. Examine the dramatic potential of all external and internal events in the scene. Comment on the significance of the seed, super-objective and through-action of your chosen scene. Please analyse the scene from the character perspective of Hamlet. Use references from the primary source to inform your analysis. Remember to focus your analysis on the practical purpose of the text, i.e. staging the play rather than from the perspective of dramatic literature.

PART 1: Analysis table

Complete the provided table to analyse text identifying internal and external action of one scene from William Shakespeare's Hamlet and one section of Act 1 from Anne Washburn's Mr Burns.

Complete this initial analysis in the table and submit by Monday 29 July 2019, 9am.

PART 2: Short essay*Length: 1000-1500-words

Revisit the analysis table. Examine the dramatic potential of all external and internal events in the scene. Comment on the significance of the seed, super-objective and through-action of your chosen scene. Please analyse the scene from the character perspective of Hamlet. Use references from the primary source to inform your analysis. Remember to focus your analysis on the practical purpose of the text, i.e. staging the play rather than from the perspective of dramatic literature.

Complete Part 2 and submit by Monday, 5 August 2019, 9am

2 Text analysis: Idea and dialogue

Assessment Type

Research Assignment

Task Description

Task Description: Text Analysis

Part 1 Analysis table

Due date: Monday 19 August, 2019, 9am.

Part 2: Short essay

Length: 1000-1500-words

Due date: Monday 9 September 2019, 9am.

Task details:

Complete a formalist text analysis of Donald Margulies' Time Stands Still.

Part 1

Complete the table of given circumstances and additional analysis to prepare your notes.

Examine the dramatic potential of each given circumstance: Time, Place, Society, Economics, Politics and Law, Learning and the Arts, Spirituality, and the World of the Play. Where possible, explore each given circumstance from the character perspective of a major character (James, Sarah) from the play. If a particular given circumstance does not have a strong impact on the dramatic potential of the text, either in the scene or the play as a whole, identify why this is the case. Your analysis table also includes the following concepts: backstory, character, idea, dialogue or atmosphere. Identify the concept that you believe most supports the active playing of the character, James and the character, Sarah. Use references from the primary source (the script) to inform your analysis. Remember to focus your analysis on the practical purpose of the text, i.e. staging the play rather than from the perspective of dramatic literature.

Part 2: Short essay

Length: 1000-1500-words

Complete a formalist text analysis of Donald Margulies' Time Stands Still, focusing on idea and dialogue.

Examine the concept of idea in script analysis by discussing the ideas in words in the dialogue (including language structure, literary quality and theatricality), character, plot and the main idea as a whole. Choose one scene from the play on which to focus your analysis. Refer to your analysis table from Part 1.

Where possible, explore the concepts of idea and dialogue from the perspective of one of the main characters (Sarah or James) in Time Stands Still. Use references from the primary source to inform your analysis. Remember to focus your analysis on the practical purpose of the text, i.e. staging the play rather than from the perspective of dramatic literature.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
