

THTR13126 Theatre Studies 5: Realism to Epic Theatre

Term 1 - 2019

Profile information current as at 11/05/2024 06:56 pm

All details in this unit profile for THTR13126 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will study the development and structure of various theatre styles from the late nineteenth century to the mid twentieth century. Beginning with the naturalist and realist theatre movements in the nineteenth century, you will explore early twentieth century realist theatre, symbolism, expressionism and epic theatre, as well as the cabaret styles of early twentieth century Europe. You will analyse important primary sources while studying the broader political, social and cultural contexts as they apply to the history of theatrical performance practice during this period.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Tasks

1 Performance analysis

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Task: Compare the cabaret performances seen in the film Cabaret (1972) with music by Kander and Ebb and directed by Bob Fosse, with the written and visual accounts of the Weimar cabaret scene during the 1920s. Discuss the authenticity of the film with regard to:

- Use of the stage and general staging elements
- Costuming
- Type of accompaniment
- Use of satire for political comment

You may use Youtube clips (appropriately referenced and included in the reference list) to support your argument.

Assignment format:

- Use 12 point Time New Roman font for the body of the essay
- 1.5 spacing throughout
- You may use sub-headings to organise your assignment. These may be in a different colour and font.
- Include intext references (citations) throughout the assignment.
- Include a reference list at the end of the assignment in APA style, 6th Edition.
- Do not rely solely on web-based sources. On-line research sources obtained from peer reviewed journals or academic databases are acceptable. Any internet sources used must be scholarly and accredited. Citations from Wikipedia, Sparksnotes, or similar websites are not to be used under any circumstances.
- Include URL links to all video recordings referred to in this assignment.

Length: 1500 words

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

2 Research essay

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Task: Write an essay on ONE of the topics provided below:

Topic 1: Political satire in theatre: 1880 - 1920

Examine the way political satire was used in European theatre from about 1880 to 1920. Discuss at least 3 different playwrights and their work, linking their objectives to the political and geographical scene in which they worked and lived. Limit your discussion to plays only.

Topic 2: Scenic design in theatre: 1880 - 1920

Discuss the scenographic revolution in theatre from about 1880 to 1920. Consider the emerging concept of the mise-en-scene as directors and designers brought plays to the stage. Discuss at least 3 different scenic designers from this period, linking their objectives to the changing styles of theatre production during this time.

Length: 2000 words

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
