Term 1 - 2021

Profile information current as at 24/04/2024 07:52 am

All details in this unit profile for THTR13128 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

In this unit you will explore theatre for social change across a range of forms. Through a study of the theatrical work and styles of Brecht, Boal and Artaud, you will connect current social issues to these styles. Through an analysis of contemporary theatre, film and television, you will explore how creatives use these theatrical styles to comment on social issues.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Assessment Tasks

1 Analysis assignment

Assessment Type

Research Assignment

Task Description

Length: 2000 - 2500 words

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Task:

- Identify a particular theatre production or television program that educates/informs or specifically promotes social change to intended audiences. This should not be a documentary, but it needs to be a dramatic work, and can be either comic or serious in tone.

- You will need to be able to watch this production in its entirety.
- Identify and describe the social change messages and delivery style evident in the theatre production or television program.
- Research how the creative personnel behind the production or television program have used theatrical devices representative of the styles of Brecht, Boal and/or Artaud to highlight these social issues and educate/inform their audience.

Assignment format:

- Use 12 point Times New Roman font for the body of the essay.
- 1.5 spacing throughout
- You may use sub-headings if you wish to organise your assignment. These may be in a different colour or different size font.
- Include in-text references (citations) throughout the assignment.
- Include your name and student number in the header of the document
- Include page numbers in the footer of the document
- Include a Reference List at the end of the assignment in APA style, 7th edition.
- You should have a minimum of 15 references for this assignment
- Do NOT cite from Wikipedia or other websites that do not have an acknowledged author.

Task Description

Length: 1000 - 1500 words

The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations.

Task:

- Write a proposal for the presentation you will give for Assessment 3. The aim of your pre-recorded audiovisual presentation in Assessment 3 is to educate your the audience about an issue of significance today using aspects of the theatrical styles of Brecht, Boal and/or Artaud.
- This proposal should be in response to an issue of social change in your locale.

Your proposal and rationale should cover:

- What is the issue for social change in your locale?
- How will you apply the theatrical styles of Brecht, Boal and/or Artaud in your presentation?
- Why do these particular aspects work for this presentation? This should explain the relationship between the content of the message and the audience with whom you are communicating.

Assignment format:

- Use 12 point Times New Roman font for the body of the essay.
- 1.5 spacing throughout
- You may use sub-headings if you wish to organise your assignment. These may be in a different colour or different size font.

Assessment Type

Creative work

Task Description

Length:

- Audiovisual recording up to 10 minutes;
- Accompanying script/ screenplay

The aim of your pre-recorded audiovisual presentation is to educate your audience about an issue of social change in your locale (region or community) using aspects of the theatrical styles championed by Brecht, Boal and/or Artaud.

Task:

- Identify an issue that is significant today in your locale (region or community).
- Identify the target audience for your message to educate people about this issue.
- Create a script/screenplay for your presentation/performance that incorporates aspects of the theatrical styles championed by Brecht, Boal and/or Artaud. (Refer to assessment 2 regarding the rationale for this).
- The script/screenplay should be a solo performance but you may use any location or virtual environment.
- Video record your performance and upload a private link to YouTube. This link will be shared with other members of the class.
- Complete a peer review of each of the presentations from members of your class. A link will be provided for this.

Assignment format:

Submit the following to Moodle:

- Link to your final presentation in Youtube (unlisted site) of no longer than 10 minutes.
 - This link will be shared with each member in the class.
 - You will be required to watch each presentation from all of the class members and provide a peer assessment for each presentation.
 - A link will be provided to record your peer assessment.
- Word document with your script/screenplay
- Word document with your list of references.
 - The Reference List is to be in APA style, 7th edition. You should have a minimum of 5 references for this assignment.
 - Do NOT cite from Wikipedia or other websites that do not have an acknowledged author.
 - Include in your reference list all recordings used, Youtube sources, as well as books, academic journal articles, and articles from Oxford Music Online and/or JSTOR and/or Wiley Online Library

Format for your video presentation:

- This is to be a pre-recorded presentation of up to 10 minutes in length.
- Include your name and student number in the opening credits of the recording.
- Include a final credits screen which includes a list of references.
- Be creative!

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
