Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student feedback

The in-class live presentation as the final assessment was a useful capstone assessment.

Recommendation

Continue to incorporate an in-class live presentation in one of the assessments in this unit to allow students to demonstrate deep knowledge of the subject matter.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Explore the origins of cabaret and analyse the theatrical devices and techniques used in contemporary cabaret
2. Analyse the theatrical devices and techniques used by playwrights associated with the Theatre of the Absurd
3. Investigate the theatrical devices and techniques used in verbatim theatre and documentary drama
4. Contextualise various post-modern theatre styles with the important political, social and cultural movements of the twentieth century.
