General Information

Overview

This unit develops your knowledge of tourism enterprises and how they operate in a sustainable manner. The unit introduces you to the nature of tourism enterprises within the tourism system, and the principles of sustainability that underpin the operations of sustainable tourism enterprises. You will explore different aspects of tourism enterprises, including business operations, obligations, marketing, human resources and financial considerations, as well as the alignment of sustainable principles and practice within enterprises. The unit also encourages you to consider those factors that impact the development of new tourism products from both demand and supply perspectives. Building on this concept, you will develop knowledge and analytical skills by assessing and evaluating business plans. The unit enables you to think critically about the trends that affect the sustainability of tourism enterprises.
