General Information

Overview

This unit uses design thinking to develop a product or service in the unique context of tourism. It equips you to navigate the process of innovation applied within a structured product development scenario. In this unit, you will learn how to identify gaps in the market through a situation analysis, define the design problem, innovate a product or service through design thinking strategies and plan for testing and development. Through this process, you will engage in self-reflection to enhance your ability to think critically and innovate using your own creative style.

Assessment Overview

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Staff observation.

The unit coordinator prepared for this unit a quality moodle site, and included valuable learning resources/activities on it.

Recommendation

The future coordinator of this unit is encouraged to continuously maintain a high quality moodle site and keep incorporating valuable, relevant, and updated learning resources/activities onto the moodle site.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Evaluate and apply a range of innovation strategies in tourism
2. Apply innovation strategies to real-world tourism scenarios through developing a proposal for a product to fill identified gaps in the market
3. Evaluate your own individual creative style within a design thinking framework through reflection
4. Effectively communicate innovation outcomes with a wide audience
5. Develop a variety of personal strategies that generate innovation in tourism.
