Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluation Comment

Feedback

Communication with the lecturer was excellent. Questions were quickly answered. As a FLEX student this is especially important. Lecturer was encouraging as well as constructive in her assessments.

Recommendation

The UC will continue to support student learning in providing timely responses to students' questions and queries.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluation Comment

Feedback

The feedback was excellent. The highest standard of any other course I have done and really helped me to get a clearer understanding.

Recommendation

The UC will continue to support and encourage student learning in providing effective and timely feedback to all students.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluation Comment

Feedback

I did not receive my textbook for this course from CQU bookshop until at least halfway through the course. This was disappointing as I could access this online from other sources immediately. When I contacted the bookshop to inquire, I was informed it would be arriving soon so I did not cancel the order as it would have meant getting a refund. However, it took a lot longer after that than was expected.

Recommendation

Students are encouraged to order their essential texts as soon as possible. Unit outlines are available three (3) weeks before Term commencement. If students are informed by the Bookshop that there is an unexpected delay regarding their textbook, students are advised to contact their Unit Coordinator as soon as possible.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluation Comment

Feedback

I was shocked to find feedback for my second assignment so soon after submitting. I was hoping for feedback before the due date for my last assignment but had accepted it may not happen due to the timeframe. The feedback was in depth and really promoted my learning and without it I may not have been so enthusiastic whilst studying this unit. I loved the way all the assessment pieces worked together pushing me towards my final creative artefact.

Recommendation

The UC will continue to provide opportunities to engage students in the practice and craft of creative writing.

Feedback from Student Unit Evaluation Comment

Feedback

I loved every aspect of Creative Writing 1. I especially enjoyed and got the most from the Zoom Workshop Sessions. Excellent Unit, Great Lecturer and fantastic constructive feedback.

Recommendation

The UC will continue to support and encourage student engagement using Zoom sessions in providing a platform for collaborative feedback and peer interaction in the practice of creative writing.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. development of your skills in literary craftsmanship
2. development of your analytical skills through first-hand experience with problems of crafting 'imaginative' literature
3. broadening of your understanding of the 'imaginative' writer's relationship with both society and individuals within that society through a heightened awareness of your reactions to society and the individual and the parts such reactions play in the generation of your own 'imaginative' themes.

Term Specific Information

The submission of Assessment Item 1 - The Proposal - according to the stipulated due date and assessment item description is a requirement of this unit.

Because The Proposal represents the student's account of what they hope to achieve as regards their creative work (that is, the 'creative artefact'), failure to submit a proposal according to the stipulated due date and assessment item description will normally result in AF (absent fail).

Assessment Tasks

1 Written Assessment 1 - Proposal

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

A 500 word Proposal is required, describing the basic themes, plot or concept of your writing project for the Term.

The Proposal is non-graded but it is a condition of the course that the item must be submitted and approved because The Proposal represents the student's account of what they aim to achieve over the course of the Term with regards to the creative artefact.

The stipulations for your creative writing project are as follows:

1. The narrative for the proposed creative work (the creative artefact) must adopt the third-person mode
2. The third person mode can be either third-person omnipotent, third-person limited, or third-person intimate
3. The narrative of the proposed creative work (the creative artefact) must include:
 - (a) at least one instance of the narrator diving into private thoughts; or
 - (b) at least one instance of the narrator sharing a secret or a hidden event; or
 - (c) at least one instance of the narrator jumping between spaces, places and times in the telling of the tale.

These stipulations are not intended to restrict creativity, but rather to provide you as beginning writers with a structural basis for your creative writing artefact. While new writers typically feel most comfortable with first person ('I,' 'we,' 'me,' 'my,' 'our,' etc.) mode, writing using the third-person point-of-view ('he,' 'she,' 'they,' and 'it') offers the creative writer more freedom in shaping how a story is told.

Assessment Criteria

The project proposal will be assessed according to the extent to which:

1. the proposal evidences that it will carry-out a clearly articulated set of outcomes in reference to the genre and form of the writing project (e.g., writing the first chapter of a novel, writing a series of ten poems, writing a dramatic script, writing a short story, writing a children's book, etc.);
2. the proposal identifies the specific point-of-view (e.g., third person omnipotent, etc.), and style in which the content of the creative artefact will be written (e.g., epic, ode [specify poetry form is completing a suite of poems], fantasy, magic realism, horror, Gothic, paranormal, realism, historical, sci-fi, etc.);
3. the proposal of the creative artefact represents an original piece of writing according to the chosen genre, and is of an achievable standard shown via a week-by-week timeline indicating what is to be undertaken and when in the writing process (including milestones, e.g., benchmarks achieved leading up to your Final Draft);
4. the proposal is presented in a flawless literary presentation, formatting and referencing (Harvard Author-Date system);
5. includes at least 5 references identified as important in ensuring that your creative artefact is informed by the literary and stylistic conventions of your chosen genre and specified style in which the content will be written.
6. the proposal defines key concepts (e.g., third person point-of-view, epic, ode, fantasy, magic realism, horror, Gothic, paranormal, realism, historical, sci-fi, etc.), using scholarly sources.

2 Written Assessment 2 - Critical Reflection Journal

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Students are required to reflect weekly on their writing progress with specific reference to their experiences throughout the creative writing process. The reflective journal must discuss in a critical way how the final written piece (the creative artefact) is being/has been shaped by the various factors effecting the process of literary creation.

Students can complete their reflective journal as a blog if desired (using the weekly topic forums on the unit moodle site) or submit as a Word document.

Students weekly reflections must account for the period Week 3 until Week 10 (not inclusive) and 7 (seven) reflections are required in total.

Each of the seven weekly reflection responses is worth an equal proportion of the marks.

Word limit: Each response should be between 200-275 words in total (references and direct quotes are not included in the word count).

Please refer to the unit Moodle site for detailed information.

Assessment Due Date

Week 10 Friday (24 May 2019) 5:00 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 12 Friday (7 June 2019)

Weighting

45%

Assessment Criteria

This assessment will be evaluated on the extent to which it demonstrates:

1. Critical reflection regarding the ways in which the work in progress aligns with the creative intentions set out in the proposal;
2. Critical reflection regarding the ways in which the work in progress is a demonstration of the critical engagement with the writing techniques identified in the proposal;
3. A deliberate and concerted weekly enterprise in seriously considering the factors which have shaped and determined the process of literary creation including; a justification of literary techniques used, a justification of chosen genre and form, a justification of how each step of the writing process as gone beyond simply sitting and writing, but offers insight into how you have critically examined your creative product in the light of contemporary theory and practice (insights each supported by critical/scholarly readings and material);
4. Each critical reflection reflects flawless presentation and clarity of expression - including spelling and grammatical correctness
5. Appropriate acknowledgement of all sources and in-text citation using the Harvard \(author-date\) referencing style.

3 Written Assessment 3 - Final Creative Piece (Creative Artefact)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

The Final Creative Piece (Creative Artefact) must be completed according to the topic proposed in Assessment One (The Proposal). The word count is between 2500–3000 words in total.

While it is acceptable in this unit to allow of a 10% variation (either above or below) the word count, students are strongly advised to accord with word count (taking into account variation limits, e.g., +/-10%).

Weighting: This assessment item is worth 55% of the overall grade.

Note: A copy of the Proposal (Assessment Item 1) must be included with this assessment item (placed either at the very beginning, or on the final page/s of the Creative Artefact). The Proposal will not be included in the final word count.

Assessment Criteria

The Final Creative Writing Piece will be evaluated according to the extent to which:

1. the draft realises the articulated set of outcomes with respect to the genre and form of the creative artefact;
2. the draft incorporates all of the stipulations outlined for the creative artefact (e.g. third-person limited, intimate, or omniscient, etc., at least one instance of the narrator diving into private thoughts, etc.)
3. the draft realises the elements of the chosen genre (e.g., horror, sci-fi, fantasy, historical romance, popular romance, etc.), and accords with the standards shown via the Proposal's week-by-week timeline indicating what was to be undertaken and when in the writing process (that is, the achieved milestones leading up to Assessment 3 - Final Draft)
4. the draft is presented in a flawless literary presentation, formatting and referencing (Harvard \(author-date\) referencing style)
5. the draft shows the realisation of an original piece of writing indicating the literary and stylistic conventions of the chosen genre and the specified style in which content of this type should be written.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
