

WRIT11025 Creative Nonfiction

Term 2 - 2017

Profile information current as at 08/05/2024 11:58 am

All details in this unit profile for WRIT11025 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

This unit provides students with an introduction to the practice and craft of Creative Nonfiction writing. This emerging genre offers nonfiction writers the opportunity to incorporate literary devices such as description, dialogue and development of scenes. The student will be introduced to the concept of reportage, examine the work of creative nonfiction luminaries such as Joan Didion, Truman Capote and Helen Garner, the ethics of nonfiction writing and research, and develop their literary essay writing skills with practical writing activities in a range of subgenres including the personal essay, review writing and food and nature writing.

Assessment Grading

This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Student evaluations

"The feedback for the assessment tasks really helped my learning for the course. The text book was easy to read and understand. Good feedback from the lecturer and he also answered our emails promptly. I enjoyed the writing tasks, they were interesting and engaged me to want to learn more."

Recommendation

Continue with course.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

"The assessment tasks and resources could probably relate more to nonfiction, but they are fine the way they are so I wouldn't change anything."

Recommendation

Continue with course.

Feedback from Student evaluations

Feedback

"It seems that if something is non assessable, students ignore it. Keeping this in mind, some techniques could be clarified by having short writing exercises completed."

Recommendation

Content needs to be clarified for the next iteration.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. Draft and effectively redraft a sustained piece of creative nonfiction writing
2. Research and write creative nonfiction writing using ethical practice

Assessment Tasks

1 The Pitch: proposal for creative nonfiction piece

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Chose a genre of creative nonfiction: memoir, personal essay, portrait, essay of place or narrative journalism. Write a 300-400 word pitch for a written piece in this genre to myself as 'editor'.

Explanation

You are required to write a creative nonfiction piece for your major piece of assessment. This assignment has two parts: the pitch (or proposal) (pass/fail); the CNF piece itself (45%). This first part is pass/fail only. This means that you are required to complete the pitch (on which you will receive feedback), but this does not contribute to the overall grade percentage. Why? Because it is a prelude to the major piece of assessment which is graded. As any writer will tell you, if you want to get a CNF piece published, editors expect a pitch BEFORE the main piece is sent. This is the case in most publishing: writing a book first and then trying to get a publisher can be a dangerous waste of time. So writers produce a pitch first, and then go ahead once the editor has agree (preferably with a signed book contract). For shorter works, editors will still expect a pitch. This not only saves time but gives the editor the opportunity of suggesting changes to the focus or tone of the piece. Senior writers who work for The Atlantic or The New Yorker may be able to pursue their own writing, but if general commentary is anything to go by, even they have to pitch for approval. So the pitch (or proposal) is good practice and an essential part of the creative non-fiction genre.

NOTE: Creative non-Fiction pieces submitted WITHOUT a prior pitch being received and marked may be penalised.

Assessment Due Date

Week 6 Friday (25 Aug 2017) 11:45 pm AEST

Return Date to Students

Week 8 Friday (8 Sept 2017)

Proposals are due in Week 6 but may be submitted earlier.

Weighting

Pass/Fail

Assessment Criteria

This assessment will be examined to the degree that it demonstrates:

1. Overall coherence and interest of the Pitch;
2. Understanding of key purposes, forms and techniques of the selected genre of creative nonfiction;
3. Clarity of expression including spelling and grammar and appropriate referencing.

2 Reflective CNF Journal

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Students are expected to keep a CNF Journal during term. The purpose of the CNF Journal is to provide students with an intellectual space where they can consider and record their reflections on the reading, concepts, ideas and activities that are examined in this course.

Assessable component

- You are expected to respond to the weekly activities/questions from weeks 1-9 as listed on the course Moodle website, and to submit these electronically as a single a word document through the Moodle website by the due date;
- Each reflection/answer should be no less than 350 words and no longer than 500 words;
- You are expected to post these answers to the relevant Moodle discussion forum and to participate in the weekly discussions;
- Your reflections/answers should be thoughtfully considered and demonstrate evidence of reading and research (including from the set text).

NOTE: Late assignments may receive a grade but no feedback.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?

A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?

For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre \(ALC\) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest

If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help

If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work

Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
