You will be expected to produce work of a publishable standard, and will be encouraged to find a print or online publication outlet - journal, magazine, newspaper - and submit your project for consideration. You will be expected to reflect on your project and to demonstrate, through a weblog, knowledge of how professional and creative writing works. You will demonstrate advanced writing skills, as well as the ability to collect, analyse, organize and present ideas and information in creative and/ or professional ways.

Term Specific Information

Enrolment in this unit requires instructor consent. Students must ensure they meet the prerequisites before enrolling in this unit.

- To undertake a Creative Writing project for this unit, you would have already completed WRIT11023 and WRIT12010. Creative Writing student must contact Dr. Nicole Anae to discuss their intended project before enrolling.
- To complete a professional communication project, you would have already completed COMM11007 and JOUR12010. Professional communications students must contact Dr. Celeste Lawson to discuss their intended project before enrolling.

Assessment item 1: The Proposal/Pitch is pass/fail only. This means that you are required to complete the proposal/pitch (on which you will receive feedback), but this does not contribute to the overall grade percentage. Why? Because the final creative artefact is around 2000 words, you must first show that you have actually undertaken research to ensure it is 'do-able' as well as identified the publication or choice, and nominated the experimental writing technique via which the content will be written. Therefore, a proposal/pitch not only gives you the opportunity to focus your creative writing process, but is also good practice as well as an essential part of the creative writing process.

NOTE: Assessment item submitted WITHOUT a prior proposal/pitch being received and marked will be penalised (as Assessment Item 2 and 3 are conditional on the submission of an approved pitch/proposal as indicated in the assessment criteria for each item).

Assessment Tasks

1 Written Assessment -The 'Pitch'/Proposal

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Students are required to develop a 500 word 'pitch' for a publication of their choice (e.g. Magazine, journal, literary review, etc.). The 'pitch' will include an outline describing the basic themes, plot/story line or concept of the writing project for the Term and must be topic specific to the submission requirements of the chosen publication. The publication will dictate topic, tone, required images, word length, etc. The aim of the pitch is twofold: a) to show how the student's chosen topic fits the publication criteria; and b) to ensure the writing piece will be developed and written in a suitable and appropriate way. Students must negotiate the topic for the "pitch" with their supervisor.

Enrolment in the unit requires instructor consent.

Students must ensure they meet the prerequisites before enrolling in this unit.

To undertake a Creative Writing project for this unit, you would have already completed WRIT11023 and WRIT12010. Creative Writing student must contact Dr. Nicole Anae before enrolling.

To complete a professional communication project, you would have already completed COMM11007 and JOUR12010. Professional communications students must contact Dr. Celeste Lawson before enrolling.

The Pitch/Proposal is non-graded but it is a condition of the unit that the item must be submitted and approved.

3. Overall clarity of expression including spelling and grammatical correctness.
4. Appropriate acknowledgment and in-text citation of all sources consulted in the creation of the proposal using the Harvard\(author-date\) referencing style.

Written Assessment

Task Description

Critical Reflection Journal

Students are required to reflect weekly on their progress through the writing process with specific reference to the submission guidelines of the selected publication.

The reflective journal must discuss in a critical way not only how the written piece meets the submission guidelines and the journalistic/creative standards of the selected publication, but on the various factors effecting the process of literary creation. Students can complete their reflective journal as a blog if desired.

Students weekly reflections must account for the period Week 3 until Week 10 (7 weeks in total).

3 Written Assessment - Final Piece (Creative Artefact)

Assessment Type

Written Assessment

Task Description

Students are required to complete at least one piece of writing of a publishable standard.

Word Count: 1250 words

The publishable piece must be completed according to the topic proposed in Assessment One ('The Pitch'/Proposal), as negotiated with their supervisor. The word count is negotiable depending on the genre of the writing and the publication requirements of the chosen publication. Please note however, that the word count expected for Assessment Item 3 will be 1250 words.

This means that while the publication requirement for your chosen journal/magazine might suggest a word count of 1000 words, and this piece will comprise your publication submission as well as your submission for Assessment Item 3: Final Piece, for this unit (WRIT13013) students will be expected to submit a smaller piece (e.g., 250 words) in addition to the main principle piece (e.g., 1000 words) for their Assessment Item 3: Final Piece submission. This is to ensure students choosing a publication with a word limit of 500 - 750 words will not be at an advantage over students submitting work to a publication calling for 1000 words, or students choosing a publication with a word limit of 1250 words will not be at a disadvantage to students submitting work to a publication calling for 1000 words.

While it is acceptable in this unit to allow of a 10% variation (either above or below) the word count, students are strongly advised to accord with the chosen publication requirements as regards word counts and limits.

Students will be encouraged to formally submit their written piece to the chosen publication for consideration. Students will also be encouraged to submit smaller pieces to an alternative publication for consideration if they so choose.

Weighting: This assessment item is worth 65% of the overall assessment.

1. Evidences a carrying-out of the points referred to in the project pitch/proposal with experimentation and innovation;
2. Demonstrates an original piece of writing of the chosen genre and is of a standard clearly showing indicators for the chosen genre and publication;
3. Showcases a work of a flawless, polished, and finished piece of writing at a publishable standard;
4. Utilises overall clarity of expression including spelling and grammatical correctness as well as appropriate acknowledgment of sources using the Harvard\(author-date\) referencing style where this may be relevant.

Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. Why is academic integrity important?

A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.
