WRIT13013 Writing Project
Term 2 - 2023

All details in this unit profile for WRIT13013 have been officially approved by CQUniversity and represent a learning partnership between the University and you (our student). The information will not be changed unless absolutely necessary and any change will be clearly indicated by an approved correction included in the profile.

General Information

Overview

The writing project is the final unit in the writing plan. The focus of the project will be in providing practical experience in the invention, composition and revision of a writing project designated as either professional or creative writing. You will be expected to produce work of a publishable standard, and will be encouraged to find a print or online publication outlet - journal, magazine, newspaper - and submit your project for consideration. You will be expected to reflect on your project and to demonstrate, through a weblog, knowledge of how professional and creative writing works. You will demonstrate advanced writing skills, as well as the ability to collect, analyse, organize and present ideas and information in creative and/ or professional ways.

Attendance Requirements

All on-campus students are expected to attend scheduled classes – in some units, these classes are identified as a mandatory (pass/fail) component and attendance is compulsory. International students, on a student visa, must maintain a full time study load and meet both attendance and academic progress requirements in each study period (satisfactory attendance for International students is defined as maintaining at least an 80% attendance record).

Assessment Grading
This is a graded unit: your overall grade will be calculated from the marks or grades for each assessment task, based on the relative weightings shown in the table above. You must obtain an overall mark for the unit of at least 50%, or an overall grade of 'pass' in order to pass the unit. If any 'pass/fail' tasks are shown in the table above they must also be completed successfully ('pass' grade). You must also meet any minimum mark requirements specified for a particular assessment task, as detailed in the 'assessment task' section (note that in some instances, the minimum mark for a task may be greater than 50%). Consult the University's Grades and Results Policy for more details of interim results and final grades.

Previous Student Feedback

Feedback, Recommendations and Responses

Every unit is reviewed for enhancement each year. At the most recent review, the following staff and student feedback items were identified and recommendations were made.

Feedback from Unit Coordinator Observation

Feedback

Students continue to enjoy the freedom of choice, and the ability to continue with projects started in prevous writing units.

Recommendation

Continue to allow students creative freedom in choice of writing projects, including continuing previous projects, and supervision that encourages autonomous learning and production of work.

Unit Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, you will be able to:

1. complete at publishable standard a writing project designated as either professional or creative writing;
2. complete a critical reflection on their project;
3. demonstrate knowledge of how professional and/or creative writing works;
4. demonstrate the ability to collect, analyse, organise and present ideas and information in creative and/ or professional ways; and,
5. demonstrate advanced writing skills.

Assessment Tasks

1 Assessment Item I: The Proposal/Pitch

Assessment Type
Written Assessment

Task Description
Word Count: 500 words. The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations. A -/+ 10% allowance (below/over) the specified word limit is acceptable.
Students are required to develop a proposal or 'pitch' for a publication of their choice (e.g. magazine, journal, literary review, etc.).
The 'pitch' will include an outline describing the basic themes, plot/story line or concept of the writing project for the Term and must be topic specific to the submission requirements of the chosen publication. The publication will dictate topic, tone, required images, word length, etc.

The aim of the pitch is twofold: a) to show how the student's chosen topic fits the publication criteria; and b) to ensure the writing piece will be developed and written in a suitable and appropriate way. Students must negotiate the topic for the "pitch" with their supervisor.

Enrolment in the unit requires instructor consent. Students must ensure they meet the prerequisites before enrolling in this unit.

- To undertake a Creative Writing project for this unit, you would have already completed WRIT11023 and WRIT12010. Creative Writing students must contact Dr. Leanne Dodd (l.dodd@cqu.edu.au) before enrolling.
- To complete a professional communication project, you would have already completed COMM11007 and JOUR12010. Professional communications students must contact Dr. Celeste Lawson (c.lawson@cqu.edu.au) before enrolling.

The Pitch/Proposal is non-graded but it is a condition of the unit that the item must be submitted and approved.

NOTE: Late assignments submitted after the due date without an approved extension will receive a grade (with late penalty applied) but no feedback.

Assessment Criteria
This assessment will be commented on with respect to the extent to which it demonstrates:

1. The overall clarity of the proposal with respect to what it envisages for the writing project that will grow out of it.
2. The extent to which the proposal evidences the student's research of the topic (utilising at least 8 scholarly sources) and the advanced writing techniques to be used.
3. Overall clarity of expression including spelling and grammatical correctness.
4. Appropriate acknowledgement and in-text citation of all scholarly (journal articles, conference proceedings, books, book chapters, etc.) and supplementary (online websites, media articles, etc.) sources consulted in the creation of the proposal using the Harvard (author-date) referencing style.

2 Assessment Item 2: Reflective Journal

Assessment Type
Written Assessment

Task Description
Word Count: No more than 2000 words. The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations. A -/+ 10% allowance (below/over) the specified word limit is acceptable.
Students are required to reflect weekly on their progress through the writing process with specific reference to the submission guidelines of the selected publication. The Reflective Journal must discuss in a critical way not only how the written piece meets the submission guidelines and the journalistic/creative standards of the selected publication, but on the various factors effecting the process of literary creation. Students must 1) complete their reflective journal weekly as a blog on the Moodle site, then 2) collate and submit as a Word document in Week 10. Students weekly reflections must account for the period Week 4 until Week 10 (submit 7 weeks in total to meet the basic requirements of the item). Each response should be between 200-275 words in total.
Each of the seven weekly entries is worth 5 marks. At least 5 (five) journal reflections must be submitted to meet the basic pass requirements of the item,
NOTE: For submission of the assessment item, you will combine your 7 weekly entries into a single Word document and submit to Moodle using the unit's submission platform for this assessment item.
Late assignments submitted after the due date without an approved extension will receive a grade (with late penalty applied) but no feedback.

Assessment Criteria
This assessment will be evaluated on the extent to which it demonstrates:

1. Critical reflection regarding the ways in which the work in progress aligns with the creative intentions set out in the proposal;
2. Consideration of the publications standards/requirements of the nominated publication/s;
3. Critical reflection regarding the ways in which the work in progress is a demonstration of the critical engagement with the advanced writing techniques alluded to in the proposal;
4. A deliberate and concerted weekly enterprise in seriously considering the factors which have shaped and determined the process of literary creation including; a justification of literary techniques used, a justification of chosen genre and form, a justification of how each step of the writing process as gone beyond simply sitting and writing, but offers insight into how you have critically examined your creative product in the light of contemporary theory and practice (insights each supported by critical/scholarly readings and material);
5. Each critical reflection reflects flawless presentation, clarity of expression - including spelling and grammatical correctness - as well as appropriate acknowledgement of scholarly sources and in-text citation using the Harvard (author-date) referencing style.

3 Assessment Item 3: Final Piece

Assessment Type
Written Assessment

Task Description
Word Count: 1250 - 2000 words. The word count is considered from the first word of the introduction to the last word of the conclusion. It excludes the cover page, abstract, contents page, [the Proposal/Pitch: Assessment Item 1], reference page and appendices. It includes in-text references and direct quotations. A -/+ 10% allowance (below/over) the specified word limit is acceptable.
Students are required to complete at least one piece of writing of a publishable standard.
The publishable piece must be completed according to the topic proposed in Assessment One ('The Pitch'/Proposal), as negotiated with their supervisor.
The word count of the piece is negotiable depending on the genre of the writing and the publication requirements of the chosen publication. Please note however, that the word count expected for submission for Assessment Item 3 will be 1250 - 2000 words.
This means that while the publication requirement for your chosen journal/magazine might suggest a different word count of, for example 1000 words, for Assessment Item 3: Final Piece students will be expected to submit a smaller piece, in this case 250 words, in addition to the main principle piece OR an excerpt of up to 2000 words from a larger piece. This is to ensure students will not be at a disadvantage to students submitting work to a publication calling for different word counts.
While it is acceptable in this unit to allow of a 10% variation (either above or below) the word count, students are strongly advised to accord with the chosen publication requirements as regards word counts and limits. Students will be encouraged to formally submit their written piece to the chosen publication for consideration. Students will also be encouraged to submit smaller pieces to an alternative publication for consideration if they so choose.
Please include a copy of your Proposal/Pitch with the final writing piece/s positioned before the creative piece.
NOTE: Late assignments submitted after the due date without an approved extension will receive a grade (with late penalty applied) but no feedback.

Assessment Criteria
This assessment will be evaluated to the extent to which the work:

1. Evidences a carrying-out of the points referred to in the project pitch/proposal with experimentation and innovation;
2. Demonstrates an original piece of writing of the chosen genre and is of a standard clearly showing indicators for the chosen genre and publication;
3. Showcases a work of a flawless, polished, and finished piece of writing at a publishable standard;
4. Utilises overall clarity of expression including spelling and grammatical correctness as well as appropriate acknowledgement of scholarly sources using the Harvard (author-date) referencing style where this may be relevant.

Academic Integrity Statement

As a CQUniversity student you are expected to act honestly in all aspects of your academic work.

Any assessable work undertaken or submitted for review or assessment must be your own work. Assessable work is any type of work you do to meet the assessment requirements in the unit, including draft work submitted for review and feedback and final work to be assessed.

When you use the ideas, words or data of others in your assessment, you must thoroughly and clearly acknowledge the source of this information by using the correct referencing style for your unit. Using others' work without proper acknowledgement may be considered a form of intellectual dishonesty.

Participating honestly, respectfully, responsibly, and fairly in your university study ensures the CQUniversity qualification you earn will be valued as a true indication of your individual academic achievement and will continue to receive the respect and recognition it deserves.

As a student, you are responsible for reading and following CQUniversity's policies, including the Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure. This policy sets out CQUniversity's expectations of you to act with integrity, examples of academic integrity breaches to avoid, the processes used to address alleged breaches of academic integrity, and potential penalties.

What is a breach of academic integrity?
A breach of academic integrity includes but is not limited to plagiarism, self-plagiarism, collusion, cheating, contract cheating, and academic misconduct. The Student Academic Integrity Policy and Procedure defines what these terms mean and gives examples.

Why is academic integrity important?
A breach of academic integrity may result in one or more penalties, including suspension or even expulsion from the University. It can also have negative implications for student visas and future enrolment at CQUniversity or elsewhere. Students who engage in contract cheating also risk being blackmailed by contract cheating services.

Where can I get assistance?
For academic advice and guidance, the Academic Learning Centre (ALC) can support you in becoming confident in completing assessments with integrity and of high standard.

What can you do to act with integrity?

Be Honest
If your assessment task is done by someone else, it would be dishonest of you to claim it as your own

Seek Help
If you are not sure about how to cite or reference in essays, reports etc, then seek help from your lecturer, the library or the Academic Learning Centre (ALC)

Produce Original Work
Originality comes from your ability to read widely, think critically, and apply your gained knowledge to address a question or problem
